Installation Service Set For Dr. R. Murray Jones

Dr. R. Murray Jones, minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Gardena, has chosen for his sermon topic for Sunday, "The Church Speaks." The worship service begins at 11 a.m. and is presided by Church School which begins at 9:20 a.m.

The installation service for Dr. Jones will be held Sunday at 4 p.m. and will be followed by a reception for Dr. and Mrs. Jones. The following ministers will take part in the service: Dr. Stanley George will preside and ask the Constitutional Questions; Dr. David John Duman will give the sermon; Dr. Carol Shuster will give the charge to the congregation; Dr. Richard Irving will read the scripture, and Rev. Gordon A. Maranges will give the installation prayer.

Atomic Leader To Speak on Nuclear Energy

An atomic research engineer will speak at Sunday services of the Pacific Unitarian Church on peaceful uses of nuclear energy.

A. Russel Vernon, senior research engineer for Atomic International, division of Douglas Aircraft Co., will address the congregation at 11 a.m. services at 1610 Acacia Ave. Dr. Richard W. Seebode, minister of the First Parish Church in Hingham, Mass., for the past seven years, has been elected by members of the local church as their first minister.

Dr. Seebode is scheduled to take over his new post in October. The year-old church, only Unitarian group in the area, has been holding services in the Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave.

Practitioner Selects Topic For Lecture

The Dynamic Living Class, of the Religious Science teachings will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Keller, 3114 Seneca Ave., today at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Anna MacLacoe, an active practitioner of the Inglewood Religious Science Church will be the speaker of the evening. Her topic will be "Speak the Word."

During the summer months the members of the Dynamic Living Class will meet in the parlor of the members and in September they will again meet in the Woman's Clubhouse on Engracia Ave. All interested persons in Religious Science are invited to attend any of the meetings.

The Church School is having a picnic at Torrance Park from 8:30 to 1:30 this Saturday afternoon. The lovers of a contest held in the department are treating the winners to hot dogs, cupcakes and punch.

In the evening at 7 p.m. the Mariner's Club is having "Muffins and Meat" at their meeting. All married couples, members or friends of the church, are invited to dine.

The first day of Vacation Church School is Monday. There will be classes for boys and girls from four years to junior high age. The school will run from July 14 through July 25, Monday through Friday. The hours are 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. The theme of the school this year is "Jesus Christ."

Junior High Fellowship meets at 7 p.m., Tuesday. All boys and girls who are entering junior high school this fall are invited to start attending these meetings now.

Martha Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Emily Cost, 331 Walnut St., at 1 p.m. and Judith Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Ruth Newlin, 16512 S. Harvard Ave. at 7:30 p.m., July 15.

Bible Classes Started Here

The Lomita Church of Christ will provide Bible classes for children of all ages Saturday beginning July 12, 9:30 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Songs and Bible drills will be taught and transportation can be arranged by phoning the minister, Elvis Bozarth. The church meets at 2031 Pacific Coast Hwy.

A school for training Bible class teachers will be conducted Monday through Friday, 7:30 to 9 p.m. each night. Don Mansur, Lomita preacher, will direct a class in "Songs Children Like to Sing," 7:30 to 8 p.m.; a guest speaker nightly from 8 to 8:40 p.m.; and Elvis Bozarth will direct the group discussion from 8:40 to 9 p.m.

SERMON ON SACRAMENT

"Sacrament" will be the subject of the communion service to be held in all branches of the Christian Science Church, Sunday. The Lesson-Sermon will illustrate the feeding of all mankind by divine love.

Scriptural selections point out Jesus' teachings of brotherly love and of man's oneness with God. Matthew's Gospel relates, "And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body" (26:26). This promise of the Master is from Luke, "And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me; that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom" (22:29, 30).

Pastor Reveals Sermon Topic For Services

"The Peril of Offending Influence" will be the Sunday sermon topic of the Rev. H. Earl Kuester, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., at the duplicate services 8:30 and 11:00 a.m.

This is the third in the series on "Seven Messages to the Asian Churches" found in Chapters 2 and 8 of Revelation. In the evening at 7:30 Rev. Kuester will speak on "About the Birds and the Bee."

The Order of Andrew will meet Monday evening for their program of calling in the homes of those who have visited Calvary Baptist Church. The Order will continue their regular meetings throughout the summer.

On Tuesday evening the Senior High Fellowship Guild will be entertained at a dinner in the home of Juanita Anderson, director of Christian education. Colored slides of American Baptist Home Missions will be shown.

Paul Mansfield, recently appointed coordinator of youth activities, has launched an extensive recreational program for the summer through the leaders of the junior high, senior high and college age groups. Swimming parties, a progressive dinner, inter-church athletic events and a beach cook-out will be held during July and August.

An all-church picnic is being planned for Aug. 2 to be held in Centinela Park Inglewood. Paul MacArthur is general chairman of arrangements.

Scout Breakfast Set

Boy Scout Troop 209 will have its annual breakfast Sunday at the Nativity Church Parish Hall. Hot cakes, sausage, and coffee will be served from 7 until 11:30 a.m.

Rabbi Kraus Gives Theme

"Our Heritage Dead or Alive" will be the theme of Rabbi Henry E. Kraus' sermon at Friday night services of the Gardena Valley Jewish Center, 14725 S. Gramercy Pl., Gardena.

Religious services will begin at 8:30 p.m. and will be followed by an Oneg Shabbat.

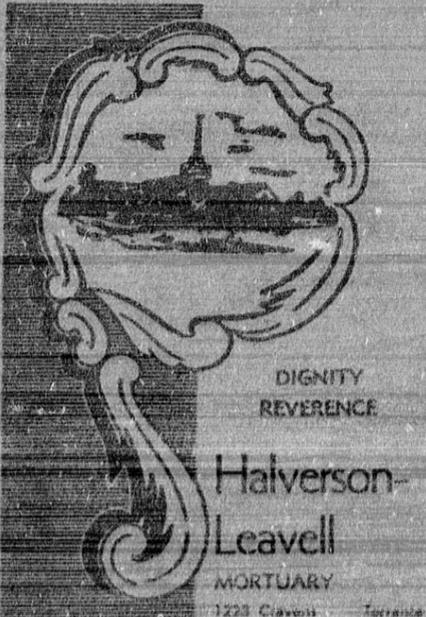

Rabbi Kraus will also conduct Saturday morning devotional services, July 12, in conjunction with the Bar Mitzvah of Elias Baumgarten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Baumgarten.
