Clarence Fosters Feted On Golden Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Foster, 2757 Gramercy were honored at a surprise party last Sunday afternoon in celebration of their Golden Wedding anniversary. The party was given by their daughters and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Littleton, at their home 2454 Ontario St.

The living room and patio were decorated with gift bouquets of yellow and white blossoms and the table was centered by a beautiful tiered wedding cake in white and gold. White tapers entwined with a spiral of gold chrysanthemums flanked the cake.

Over 50 guests were present to offer their congratulations among whom were the Fosters' houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. John Wright of Rushville, Ind. Mr. Wright is a brother of Mrs. Foster.

Mrs. Littleton was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. William Whitehead, Mrs. Don George and Mrs. Lambert W. Brownlee.

Parents Are Honored On Birthdays

The home of the Rev. and Mrs. John Taylor, 1542 El Prado, was the scene of a happy occasion last Sunday afternoon when a party was given honoring Mrs. Taylor's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Phillip D. Norvell who were both celebrating their 70th birthdays.

Co-hosting with Mrs. Taylor were another daughter, Mrs. Robert Goodale and a son, Philip J. Norvell.

Highlighting the afternoon's festivities was the surprise arrival of another son, Lawrence W. Norvell, of Manhattan, Kan., and his wife and four children. This brought all of the couple's children together for the occasion as well as their seven grandchildren.

A refreshment table was set in the patio and assisting in extending hospitality were Kathleen Marilyn and Virginia Taylor.

During the afternoon 50 friends called to offer congratulations among whom were many of the honored couple's college friends and two friends from Rev. Norvell's first charge in Aspen, Colo., shortly after his graduation from the seminary.

Palmer Home Setting for Lovely Party

Shades of lavender were used in the floral bouquets, napkins and nut cups when Mrs. A. E. Palmer entertained at a lovely miscellaneous shower complimenting Miss Mickey Van Deventer who was married last Saturday to Bruce Rehwood.

The guest list for the party given on Friday afternoon was confined to long-time family friends of the bride.

Hearts in the party colors decorated the gift table. Several games were played and the hostess served refreshments in the lavender colors. Attending were Miss Emma Allen, Floyd Belts, G. S. Evans, Nellie Gray, Mervin Schwab, William Speck, L. D. Stage, Sarah Hoag, Russell Paxton, John Taylor and Harry Hazelwood.

Special guests were the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Grover Van Deventer, and her aunt Mrs. Otis Hulsey of Columbia, South America, here for the wedding.

Baby Shower Given for Mrs. Wright

Mrs. Frank Rembis and Mrs. Laura Kujawa were co-hostesses at a barbecue luncheon and baby shower last Sunday afternoon at the Rembis home, 25108 Maricopa, honoring Mrs. James G. Wright.

The yellow and green colors were used in decorating and the gifts were placed on a decorated table in the patio.

After the luncheon, Mrs. Wright opened the gifts. Attending were Misses Ruth Wright, Ann Nagel, Ida Matthews, Mary Kujawa, Victoria Williams and Vita Smith. Others were Misses Kathy Wright, Carolyn Wood, Donna Walker, Joann Minnear, Doris Matthews, Rose Rembis, Cynthia Rurak and Sophie Mafretas.

Sending gifts were Misses Zena Ecker, Billy Bolton and Ken Purdy.

CANTALOUPE, MELONS—Crashaw and Honeydew, sweet, juicy and vine-ripened.

NECTARINES, PEACHES, WATERMELONS—Treat the youngsters and oldsters to a COOL, COOL SALADDESSERT of our plentiful fresh fruits. The following is a favorite recipe of one of our home advisors: Combine cubed watermelon and cantaloupe, quartered peaches and pears, pineapple chunks, seedless grapes and whole strawberries; drizzle all with fresh or frozen lemon or lime juice; top with lemon sherbet. The secret for a good, fresh fruit salad is to have all ingredients very cold.
