New 'Civinettes' Organized Here

Signifying the growth of the community, is the founding of another women's organization. This group, to be known as the "Civinettes", is an auxiliary to the Civitan Service club, which devotes its efforts to aiding mentally retarded children and sustaining a "shoe" fund for needy children.

The wives of the Civitan club members, 22 in number, gathered for an organization meeting on Aug. 11 at the home of Mrs. William Van Dewetering, 1824 Sanabria, Torrance. Their objectives, as pointed out by Mrs. Henry West, the group's charter president, is to assist the Civitan club with its work, to build better citizens and to support health and civic projects.

On Wednesday evening, Aug. 20, when the Civitan club held its "Ladies Night" at the Jumpin' Jack restaurant, the new officers of the Civinettes were installed. Here for the first occasion, Mrs. Jesse E. Taylor, governor for the California district International Civitan, who conducted the installation.

Installed were: Mrs. Henry West, president; Mrs. Jack Phillips, vice president; Mrs. William Van Dewetering, treasurer; Mrs. Tom Ward, recording secretary; Mrs. Ken Christoffersen, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Rowan Morgan, chaplain; Mrs. Chuck Simpson, sergeant-at-arms; and Mrs. Orville McCarroll, parliamentarian.

The charter membership of this new organization will close on Sept. 8. Board meetings will be held on the first Monday of each month and the regular association meetings are scheduled for the second Monday of each month.

Due to the Labor Day holiday, the first board meeting is slated for Sept. 4 at which the constitution and by-laws will be studied.

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK

In Torrance Markets

PROTEIN FOODS

No more "beefing" about beef. All markets are happy to announce the return of increasing amounts while the shift in price is downward. You'll be pleased with the low price tags on "specials." Watch for them at your neighborhood market. Your favorite cut may be included!

POULTRY

Still many good poultry values—chickens and turkeys. Fried chicken is usually on our summer menus. But don't overlook the advantages of stewing chickens. They can be cooked in the cool of the day—or evening; the meat stripped from the bones. Then, ready-cooked and refrigerated you have the "makings" for a number of meals. Sliced chicken is "tops" for a cool dinner, and perfect for salads and sandwiches. It's mighty handy to have a cooked chicken in the refrigerator, as one homemaker says, "as handy as a pocket in a shirt."

LAMB

Lamb is seasonally plentiful and prices are steady. Expectations point to slight increases in lamb marketing. Lamb shoulder is a good cut to use for shish-ka-bob on the grill.

PORK

Fresh, smoked and cured comparatively steady in price and supply, with no indications for immediate change.

ON THE PRODUCE STANDS

CELERY. Lots of it to add more crunch to crisp salads. CORN. Easy to prepare for outdoor meals—either boiled or roasted. LETTUCE—one of the most abundant vegetables of all. Just in time to provide

Ann Landers

I'll bet the neighbor who complained can't see the color of her walls for the crayola marks, nor the carpets for the toys. I'll bet she has at least one bed-wetter in the bunch, too.

You see, Ann, in MEB house, the situation is reversed. The KIDS scream and the mother jumps through hoops. Just for the heck of it, I'd like to know what SHE does when she steps on one of the kid's jacks—bare-footed.—H.G.D.

Dear Ann: I'm a girl 20 years of age and my mother is driving me out of my mind. I used to go with a fellow who got into trouble for breaking and entering. I told him I wanted nothing more to do with him because he violated his parole after he'd been released. I am not hard up for dates, in fact, I'm going with three nice fellows at present.

My mother insists on inviting this no-good character over for meals and special TV programs. If it didn't sound so wild I'd suspect my mother had a case on him. She's been divorced for five years and is young-looking for her age. I am ashamed to have this guy's car parked in front of the house because I don't want any other friends to think I am going with him again. Please, Ann, what can I do?—GIGI

CONFIDENTIALLY: LOVER BOY: The young lady is "shy" all right—like 10 years. This is cradle-snatching and you know it. Where are her parents anyway?

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' new booklet, "How To Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper and enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.) P.O. Box 100, Haverhill, Mass.
