Fox Market Sale Notes Opening Of New Store

To celebrate the opening of the new Fox Market in East Woodland Hills this week end a gigantic sale will be featured at the two Torrance Fox markets, located on Post Ave. downtown, and at 182nd St. and Arlington, today through Sunday.

Setting a pace of expansion unequalled by any market chain in Southern California, Fox's newest, the third to be opened in a month, will be its largest and finest, encompassing 35,000 square feet. There will be paved, off-street parking space on all sides of the new market to accomodate 1000 cars, it was revealed.

One of the most unusual features of the new market will be live lobsters cooked to the customer's individual order while shopping. The lobsters will be cooked at the Sea Food department which will specialize in selecting personal service in the selection of all kinds of fresh, local, eastern, northern, and Gulf fish.

A helicopter will deliver the initial load of fresh bread to the new market, which will feature a giveaway array of prizes to include a 1958 Ford station-wagon, a 14-foot boat with motor and trailer, and a Las Vegas 3-day paid vacation.

Ground Broken for New Shopping Center

City and civic officials attended ground breaking ceremonies last week for a new North Torrance Shopping Center valued at $300,000 by developers.

Located at the southwest corner of Crenshaw Blvd. and 182nd St., the center will be the first in a series of such centers planned by Wallace White and Matthew Nolan.

The center will be constructed by Councilman Robert R. Jahn's contracting firm.
