department was seriously handicapped because of a court ruling which held that a dealer in pornography could be prosecuted only in the city where the material was dropped in the mail, and NOT in the city where it was received.

The last session of Congress enacted a new law as a result of pressures from outraged parents and school and church authorities. This law authorizes the government to prosecute mailers of filthy material in any community where it is received.

Parents are no longer obliged to sit helplessly by while this garbage invades their homes. There IS something that can be done and I urge all parents to cooperate by turning the material over to the local post office authorities immediately upon receiving it. The postmaster will put it in the hands of the local United States District Attorney for prosecution before a LOCAL judge and jury.

The new law calls for a maximum penalty of a $5,000 fine and five years in prison for the first offense. A second offense means $10,000 and 10 years in prison.

I would like to shout a personal halleluiah for this new piece of legislation. Now that the law is on our side, let's throw the book at these unconscionable low-lifes who prey on America's teenage children.

Confidential to Alta-Monte: See a lawyer. Certainly a man must "let off steam" but a woman needs teeth in her mouth. This is no marriage. Wake up.

Are your parents too strict? You can benefit from the experiences of thousands of teenagers if you read ANN LANDERS' new booklet, "How To Live With Your Parents," enclosing with your request 25 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

Mary Margaret Blount Is New Honored Queen

In colorful ceremonies last Saturday evening at the Torrance Masonic Temple the 63rd semi-annual installation of officers of the International Order of Job's Daughters, Bethel 50, was held. Miss Mary Margaret Blount, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willys Blount, 1442 El Prado was installed as honored queen. Theme for the installation was "Forever Friends." The Temple was beautifully decorated in lavender and silver, the colors chosen by the new queen.

The program began with the entrance of the Guardian and Associate Guardian Mrs. Edna Babcock and Mr. Leonard Babcock. Mr. Blount served as the master of ceremonies and Miss Nancy Hornbeck and Miss Le Verne Lewis sang "I'll Walk with God" as the retiring queen, Miss Sharon Neely made her entrance.

Conducting the installation were Kay Smith, guide; Jeannette Wright, marshal; Linda Simpson, recorder; Susan MacDougall, musician; Diane Allen, senior custodian; Sally Kesselman, junior custodian, and Pat Smith, electrician.

As the Bible was brought in Miss Hornbeck and Miss Lewis sang "Our Prayer" and the presentation of the flag followed. The address of welcome was made by Mr. Blount.

Installed with Miss Blount were Bonnie C. M. Kail, senior princess; Beverly Ann Orend, junior princess; Georgia Powell, guide; and Jerry Yancey, marshal.

Other appointments were Jackie Lerton, assistant recorder; La Verne Lewis, assistant musician; Jane Strohm, page; Nancy Sullivan, electrician; Patty Woodman, obligation chairman, and Pat Alter, banner bearer.

Following the coronations and during the Bible signing ceremony Miss Hornbeck sang "My Friend." The Rev. Hugh Percy gave the benediction.

Ushers for the evening were Manford Mainer and Jim Myers. Hostesses were Kathy Jones and Ellen Marie Warr.

A reception followed in the banquet hall, which was also decorated in the queen's colors.

Welcome Wagon Has Yule Party

Torrance Welcome Wagon club held its Christmas luncheon at the Plush Horse restaurant with 32 in attendance. Tables were beautifully decorated in the Christmas theme.

Mrs. Joanne Howard, welfare chairman, had on display the baskets to be filled for needy families and a Christmas stocking for money contributions for the turkeys for these families.

. . . Christmas Cookies

Snippy Doodles

1 c. shortening — 2½ c. flour
1½ c. sugar — 2 tsp. cream of tartar
2 eggs — 1 tsp. soda
1 tsp. vanilla — ½ tsp. salt

Mix shortening, sugar, eggs, vanilla. Sift and stir in flour, cream of tartar, soda and salt. Chill dough 1 hour or more. Shape into balls and flatten. Place 2 inches apart. Bake in 400 degree oven until brown, about 15 minutes.

Non-Bake Chocolate Balls

1 6-oz. pkg. chocolate chips — 4 c. crushed vanilla wafers
2 T. light corn syrup — 1 c. chopped walnuts
½ c. orange juice

Melt chocolate chips and syrup. Add orange juice, vanilla wafers, nuts. Shape in balls a little larger than a marble. Bake in 350 degree oven. When cool roll in powdered sugar. Much better if aged a few days in a covered container. Makes about 4 dozen.

Secretaries Plan Gala Yule Party

Secty. Sascia will be received on Thursday night, Dec. 18, when the South Bay Chapter of the National Secretaries Association, International, hold their annual Christmas party at Lococco's on Sepulveda Blvd. in Manhattan Beach. Each year members of the chapter draw names of other members, at random, and become their Secret Sister for the year; remembering them on their birthdays, anniversaries and at Christmas time. The Christmas Party is the first event at which each of the members is told who their Secret Sister for the year has been.

One of the highlights of the evening will be the announcement by Mrs. Bernice Goodwin of the Spring Fashion Show, which has become the outstanding activity. Plans for the 1959 Spring Fashion Show borders on the sensational according to Mrs. Goodwin, chairman of the event.

All members of other chapters of the National Secretaries Assn. are welcome at this party, however, reservations must be made in advance by contacting Miss Cecelia Daniels.

Mrs. Irma Jean Brady, program chairman, has promised an outstanding program for the evening and has recommended that reservations for this event be made as soon as possible.

On Trip to Bay District

Mrs. Bertha McNeil and daughter, Miss Jean McNeil, accompanied by Miss Judy Wixom will leave tomorrow morning for a trip to the San Francisco Bay district.

They will visit Mrs. McNeil's son, Brother John A. McNeil, S.M., who is studying at St. Mary's college in Moraga to become a member of the Marianist Order. He entered the college last August after thirteen months at a novitiate in Santa Cruz. Upon completion of his work at St. Mary's he will teach science.

The trio will also go to Fort Ord to visit Miss McNeil's fiance Jerry Doyle, who is completing his basic training, having joined the army about a month ago. Jerry will accompany the localites to his home in Lomita. On Christmas Day he and his father, Gregory Doyle, and his twin brother, Paul, will be dinner guests at the McNeil home.
