MR. and MRS. HERMAN SILLAS of Los Angeles enjoy lunch at BBQ Pete after attending Mass at Saint Malacky's Church. The Sillas have two lovely daughters and a son. They are also proud grandparents of a cute baby girl, Virginia, age 16, is their youngest daughter, and is a very talented musician. In fact, Virginia is the organist at St. Malacky's Church. Herman Sillas is president of the American Product Corp. in Hawthorne, manufacturers of under bar and kitchen equipment. He is also an active member of the Elks Lodge in Gardena and devotes much of his time to the Catholic Youth Organization, an organization that does much for the young people of the community. Herman paid Pete Petroff, genial owner-host of the famous restaurant a wonderful compliment when he said: "In my capacity as manufacturer of kitchen equipment, BBQ Pete, with its all stainless equipment, has one of the finest kitchens I've ever seen."

Dr., Mrs. Kaveney To Reside in San Diego

Miss Kathryn Janet Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis R. Ferguson, 3706 227th St., was married to Dr. Robert E. Kaveney at a nuptial mass at 10 o'clock last Saturday morning at Nativity Catholic Church. Mr. and Mrs. Emmett P. Kaveney of Wilmington are parents of the bridegroom.

As the wedding guests assembled, Mrs. Minnie McConologue at the organ, provided a nuptial mass background. The Rev. John McArdle officiated at the marriage and the mass which took place at a flower banked altar.

On the arm of her father, the bride approached the altar. She wore a gown of embroidered white silk organza detailed with a silk peau de soie sash. A short illusion veil fell from a cap of silk embroidered organza and the bride carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and ivy.

Miss Carole Blythe was the honor attendant. Her gown was of lavender silk organza and her bouquet was of yellow roses.

Edward Kaveney performed the duties of best man for his brother and ushers were John Kaveney, Patrick Ferguson and Larry Ferguson.

A wedding reception was held in the Knights of Columbus Hall in Redondo. Mrs. Alverda Ferguson registered the guests.

After a honeymoon in northern California, Dr. and Mrs. Kaveney will make their home in San Diego.

The bride was graduated from St. Anthony's High school in Long Beach and the Harbor Junior college.

Her husband is also a St. Anthony graduate. He then completed studies at the Loyola University and the St. Louis University School of Medicine.

Segelken-McKenzie Names Are Linked in Marriage

A delicate gown fashioned with a white organza bodice and a full embroidered skirt was chosen by Miss Delores Ann Segelken for her wedding last Saturday evening to M. C. McKenzie, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McKenzie, 3658 W. 171 St. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Segelken, Jr., 15306 Faysmith, Gardena.

The First Lutheran Church, scene of the wedding was beautifully decorated with baskets of white blossoms and candles. Mr. Segelken escorted his daughter to the altar. Her bridal bouquet was of white carnations and stephanotis and a coronet of pearls held the illusion veil.

Mrs. Patricia Starr served as the matron of honor. She wore a gown of pale pink taffeta and deeper pink chiffon. White carnations tied with pink ribbons formed the bouquet.

Mrs. Shirley McKenzie was the bridesmaid. Her dress was also of the pink taffeta and chiffon and she carried white carnations.

Donald McKenzie stood as best man and William Hughes was the usher. Rev. C. Roledar officiated at the marriage.

A reception was held in the Fireside room of the church and family and close friends were entertained at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The newlyweds are spending a honeymoon in Palm Springs. Their new address will be 912 Sartori Ave., Torrance.

The bride was graduated from Leuzinger High school. Her husband received his early education in North Dakota and was graduated from El Camino college.

Whitneys on Eastern Trip

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Whitney and daughter, Margo, of Via Frascati, Palos Verdes, returned Sunday evening from a six weeks tour of the United States. The trio drove to New Orleans where they left their car and went by plane to Florida and Nassau. They flew back to New Orleans and drove through the Ozarks to Kansas City. Taking a plane they flew east to Washington, D.C., New York, and visited Williamsburg before returning to Kansas City to drive back to California.
