

of the church property. A long-standing acoustical problem was solved this week by re-locating the chancel furniture and reseating the choir, which is now under the direction of the pastor. A rehearsal for prospective choir members will take place Thursday from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the chapel. President of the Chancel Choir is Miss Betty Zaugh.

New Pastor Makes First Talk at Methodist Church

The Rev. Gilbert S. Zimmerman, who succeeds the Rev. John Taylor as pastor of the First Methodist Church of Torrance, delivered his first sermon here Sunday morning. He spoke on the subject of "Communism." The Rev. Mr. Zimmerman, who was appointed by the Conference to serve here, was formerly pastor of St. Marks Methodist Church of Los Angeles.

HE IS A graduate of Redlands University and of Boston University School of logy. He has previously served at Encinitas, San Diego, San Luis Obispo. During the summer of the Rev. and Mrs. Zimmerman conducted a work team of youths in northern Germany. The project with which they assisted was a youth camp, called close to the "Iron Curtain", and Soviet youths came for Christian fellowship and share in the program, they report.

THE PASTOR also reported that he and his wife traveled through Eastern Germany into Berlin where they spent four

REV. GILBERT ZIMMERMAN ... Takes Up Duties Here

Two days they attended an annual Methodist conference in the Eastern zone. The strongest work of the Methodist Church is in the Soviet zone, the minister said. The couple took a bus tour through southern Germany, Italy, France, and spent a week end in the Scandinavian countries.

LAST YEAR, the Rev. Mr. Zimmerman received the citation given by the Los Angeles County Human Relations Conference for outstanding service. He is currently a member of the California Advisory Committee to the Senate Commission on Civil Rights. The new minister's family includes a son and a daughter, and his mother, Mrs. George Hopkins, who makes her home with them.

Plans Set for Vacation School

Plans have been completed for the first term on Vacation Bible School at the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, 21100 Victor St., it was announced today by the Rev. Gerald W. Garlid, pastor. Classes will be held at the church beginning Monday with daily morning sessions from 9 to 11:45 o'clock during the two-week period, Monday through Friday. Open to all children, the school will include classes for boys and girls who will begin kindergarten in September and for those who have been in kindergarten through Grade 8 during the last school year. "We Believe" will be the theme. The daily program will include worship, Bible study, music, recreation, and handicraft activities. Advance registrations, required by the school staff, are being made this week. Further information may be had by calling FR 3-1144, or FR 8-2409.

Radio 'Hams' to Meet

Amateur radio "hams" will meet at 7 p.m. today at the Richard Henry Dana School, 134th and Aviation, it was announced here yesterday by George Luber (W6NEQ), president of the group.
