

Entertains at Summer Party

A "vacation" motif was used by Mrs. Kenneth Judd when she entertained at a luncheon at her home, 4139 W. 173rd St. on Tuesday.

Lime and yellow colors predominated in the table decorations. Centerpiece was a ceramic bowl filled with Shasta daisies. Place cards, made by Christy Judd and Linda Jackson, were cartoons of each guest showing their "wishful thinking" vacation plans.

The birthdays of Mrs. T. A. Jackson and Mrs. William Boell were celebrated.

A strawberry topped cake was served to the following guests: Mmes. John Arnesmeyer, Boell, Jackson, Wilson Wiley and Kenneth McVey.

A Birthday

Enjoying dinner on her birthday anniversary at the Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes recently was Mrs. Marie Tesoriero of Torrance. Hosting the informal party in her honor were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rich of Rolling Hill Estates.

Piano Pupils Receive High Guild Rates

Fifteen piano students from the studio of Gertrude Lumsden, South Bay teacher of piano and voice, participated in the annual auditions sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers recently held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Butt of Redondo Beach, with Mrs. Ruby Eberle Young of Abilene, Texas, as Guild Adjudicator for the Bay area.

In this event, 32 points are considered in rating the pianists, among these: tone quality, rhythm, accuracy, clean-cut technique, phrasing, dynamics, interpretation, pedal timing and effects; and many worthwhile goals or awards may be achieved by those qualifying.

The Lumsden group received ratings placing each and all of them in the excellent to superior classification.

The following students each played 10-piece memorized programs for the examining judge: Roxanne Brown, Larry Edman, Kay Fuller, Kenneth Hill, Rosemary McClune, Craig Robinson and Bruce Stackhouse. Among the awards for properly qualifying in a 10-piece program is the accumulation of credits toward a $100 scholarship and also a certificate and gold pin.

Also playing memorized programs of varying length and receiving Guild pins and certificates were: Catherine Adams, Phillip Carney, Carole Clarke, Chris Bystrom, Candy Cochran, Patricia Mason, Lynn Marie Stanley and Margaret Stanley. The parents of each participant received an Analysis and Performance chart signed by the Guild Examiner.
