'East Lynne' Continues Run At Hermosa

Continuing this weekend and next at the Hermosa Pier Playhouse, Hermosa Beach, is the century-old classic, "East Lynne," described by Bennett Cerf as "sex, humility, and quarts of tears." Performances are scheduled for Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights at 8:30 p.m.

"I've seen those features before, I'm certain of it. But where could it have been?" This utterance of Archibald Carlyle as he sees his fallen wife, Lady Isobel, returning to his home in the capacity of governess, is the flash point of "East Lynne," the story of a wife who deserts her family to run off with a ne'er-do-well. Preceding the opening curtain, the actors sing old-fashioned oleos. Charles Gray is director.
