Three Local Men Enlist

Three Torrance men enlisted in the Navy this week at the local Navy Recruiting Station, 16422 So. Vermont Ave., and are now in training at the U.S. Naval Training Center, San Diego.

They are Richard LaRosa, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter LaRosa, 4240 W. 178th St. Richard is a June graduate of North High School.

Robert Arimijo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Rouse, 20122 Hinstale Ave., and Thomas Burt, who resided with his sister, Mrs. Dorothy Laird, 2419 203rd St.

While in recruit training these men will receive instructions in gunnery, seamanship, ordnance, naval orientation, naval history, military bearing, military drill, ships and aircraft, Navy jobs and training, and citizenship.

After recruit training they will be assigned to a Navy school or duty in a ship or unit of the U.S. fleet.

ISLAND GIRLS... Kathy Sather, 10, and Nancy Mathis, 11, gave playground children at Halldale School a good idea of how the Hula Dance is done. Talent show was held Friday afternoon and was sponsored by the Youth Service of the Los Angeles City Schools. (Herald photo)

Thrifty Drug Stores Get Ready for School Opening

School days — fun days are right around the corner and this year students and parents alike are flocking to their neighborhood Thrifty Drug Stores for the greatest bargains ever in school clothes.

Thrifty is the largest drug-vary store chain in the west and volume buying for their 145 stores means greater savings to you, the customer. That is why, beginning this week and extending right up to the day school opens, your local Thrifty manager will have the welcome mat out, especially in the wearing apparel departments.

For the girl of school age, Thrifty has complete stocks of blouses, matching cardigan and slip-on sweaters of orlon, scarves, orlon anklets, costume jewelry and a host of other low-priced items. Take advantage of these low sale prices, and also beat the pre-school shopping rush.

Of course, in the boys department, there is an endless supply of T-shirts and under-clothing, belts, socks, perma-hide shoes, handkerchiefs, denims and blue jeans.

School time, and for that matter any time is writing time and Thrifty the year 'round features a complete stationery department that includes every size and quality of paper and binders possible. Also, there are pen and pencil sets, desk lamps, dictionaries, typewriter tables, globe maps, of the world, erasers, index tabs and folder separators.

Whatever the need, Thrifty can satisfy it with first-quality merchandise at the lowest possible prices.

Manuscripters Meeting Set For Tomorrow

The reading of three prize-winning manuscripts will feature a meeting of Southwest Manuscripters at 8 p.m. Friday at Clark Stadium, 861 Valley Drive, Hermosa Beach.

The event will culminate the group's annual short-story contest for members and will be followed by a talk by the president, Ralph Scholl, on general criticisms of contest entries.

Prizes of $25, $10 and $5 will be awarded to the three winning authors, whose names will be disclosed at the meeting. Concluding the program, Scholl will present brief reviews of new books for writers. Betty Rink, program chairman, will assist.

Southwest Manuscripters will be represented Thursday night at dedication ceremonies of new facilities at Clark Stadium. In charge of arranging a display of books and magazines representing sales by club members are Scholl; Manville Chapman, treasurer, and Frances Grace, press chairman.

Both beginning and professional writers are welcome at meetings of Southwest Manuscripters the third Friday of each month in the Clark Stadium auditorium, according to Secretary Beryl Cook Pierce. She will answer inquiries at FRontier 2-5988 or FR 2-2897. Lula Messall is hospitality chairman in charge of the coffee hour following each meeting.

POTENTIAL TEACHER... Cleoan McComas (standing) got a taste of what teaching really is like through a special program at Wood Elementary School this summer. Cleoan and Anne Houston, eighth graders, helped out as student teachers or assistants. Under the guidance of trained teachers, they did classroom work. Shown with an arithmetic group are Teacher Hubert Brier, Cleoan, Ronnie Wigg, Dexter McKeey, and Diane Holstrum.

SIMPLY SHOCKING... Electricity was a big topic in Lynn Eden's third, fourth, and fifth grade class at Anza Elementary School. The youngsters built a model village as part of their social studies work and wired it as a science activity. Each house in the village was hooked into a central system, which was hooked to a battery. Shown are young linemen, Jerry Presson and Darrel Shaner.
