

ARMED FORCES

Pvt. Larry P. Salsbury, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Morgan, live at 3212 W. 186th St., Torrance, Calif., completed the eight-week basic Army administration course July 24 at Fort Ord, Calif.

Salsbury received training in typing, record keeping and Army clerical procedures.

He entered the Army last March and received basic training at the fort.

The 23-year-old soldier is a 1954 graduate of Torrance High School and attended Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah. He was employed by the May Co. in Redondo Beach before entering the Army.

Army Recruit Curtis W. Bailey Jr., whose father lives at 5800 Olive St., Denver, Colo., recently was assigned to the 57th Artillery at Fort McArthur, Calif.

Bailey, a rocket launcher crewman in the artillery's Battery C, entered the Army in April, 1959, and received basic training at Fort Carson, Colo.

Before entering the Army, the 17-year-old soldier was employed by John Brown Motor Co., Denver, Colo. He attended Adams City (Colo.) High School. His mother, Mrs. Alta C. Younger, lives at 20820 Margaret St., Torrance, Calif.

Phillip E. Gaul, seaman apprentice, USN, husband of the former Miss Sandy Lee Hesson of 5321 Linda Dr., Torrance, Calif., departed Alameda, Calif., Aug. 1, aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Hancock for a five-month tour of duty with the U.S. Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific. The Hancock rotates between our own west coast and the western Pacific from north of Japan to the Indian Ocean, where she provides aerial striking power to the ever-ready Seventh Fleet.

Before returning home in Jan., 1960, she will visit Hawaii, Japan, the Philippines and Hong Kong.

Robert L. Lewis, machinist's mate second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lewis of 2834 Onrado St., Torrance, Calif., returned to San Diego, Calif., Aug. 7, aboard the destroyer tender USS Dixie after a seven-month tour of duty with the U.S. Seventh Fleet in the western Pacific.

During the cruise the Dixie served as flagship for the Commander of Destroyer Flotilla One. She operated between Yokosuka and Kobe, Japan, supporting the fleet's destroyers with repairs and maintenance.

The tender also visited Hong Kong.

Jon S. Young, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Young of 25104 Frampton Ave., Harbor City, Calif., serving aboard the troop carrying submarine USS Perch, participated in the west coast's annual Sea Fair Parade Aug. 6, in which ships of the U.S. First Fleet entered Elliott Bay, at Seattle, Wash., in formation.

The parade of ships was followed by a two-day recreational visit to the Sea Fair's exhibits, along with witnessing the small boat races.

The vessels left the bay Aug. 9 for two days of anti-submarine warfare exercises off the coast of California.

Pvt. Samuel A. Riccio, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. completed the eight-week basic Army administration course Aug. 7 at Fort Ord.

Riccio received training in typing, record keeping and Army clerical procedures.

He completed basic training at Ford Ord. Before entering the Army in March of this year, Riccio worked for the Pacific Press in Vernon.

He was graduated from Manual Arts High School in Los Angeles in 1954 and attended Los Angeles City College and El Camino City College.

Airman Second Class Richard Ramos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Ramos of 3445 W. 175th St., has reported for duty in the 331st Fighter-Interceptor Squadron at Webb Air Force Base, Big Spring, Tex., in the 33rd Air Defense Division.

Airman Ramos entered the Air Force in 1955 and served overseas in Germany for three years. He is a radar mechanic in the 331st Fighter Squadron.

The 33rd Air Defense Division, of which the 331st is a subordinate unit, is responsible for the aerial defense of Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana. Colonel John T. Fitzwater is Commander of the Division, which has aircraft control and warning squadrons and fighter-interceptor planes located throughout the four states.

Army PFC Kenneth L. Burton, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Burton, 210 Calle de Madrid, has been participating in a lengthy large-scale field training exercise with the 4th Armored Division in Grafenwohr, Germany. The exercise was scheduled to be concluded Aug. 17.

The training is designed to test the combat readiness of the 4th Armored Division, a part of the NATO shield of defense in Europe.

Burton, an aircraft mechanic in the division's 504th Aviation Company in Furth, entered the Army last August and completed basic combat training at Fort Ord. He arrived in Europe last April.

Burton is a 1958 graduate of Torrance High School.

Elden R. Douglass, fire control technician third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Douglass, of 25429 Pennsylvania Ave., Lomita, serving aboard the destroyer USS Picking, and Jerry D. Harp, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pierson of Lomita, serving aboard the heavy cruiser USS Helena, participated in the West Coast's annual Sea Fair Parade Aug. 6, in which ships of the U. S. First Fleet entered Elliott Bay, at Seattle, in formation. The parade of ships was followed by a two-day recreational visit to the Sea Fair's exhibits and displays along with witnessing the small boat races.
