Los Cancioneros
Choral Group
Ends Workshop

Following a successful and very rewarding summer choral workshop Los Cancioneros, the South Bay's active mixed chorus, is looking forward to its tenth regular season and has scheduled additions for new members on Thursday evening, Sept. 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Beckman, 820 Calle de Arboles, Hollywood Riviera.

The group's first summer workshop grew out of the desire of many of its members to continue work during the summer, normally a vacation period for the chorus. This activity attracted seventeen singers from outside the organization and culminated in the presentation of Zoltan Kodaly's "Missa Brevis" as part of a Festival of New Music presented by the Music Committee of the Pacific Unitarian Church of Torrance. The Festival was held at St. Cross Episcopalian Church in Hermosa Beach and also featured solos by Stella Herman, soprano, and Mildred Kammeyer, organist.

BARBARA MABIN, Los Cancioneros' talented director, stated that new members will be selected on the basis of musicianship, choral experience, ability to blend and to meet general membership requirements.

Regular Tuesday evening rehearsals will be resumed on September 15, at El Retiro Park, Hollywood Riviera, and plans are well under way for the group's traditional "season-opener" the popular "Sing for Your Supper" scheduled for Sunday, October 25, at the Masonic Temple, Redondo Beach.
