Bridge-Brunch Benefit Nov. 5

One of the loveliest parties of the autumn season will be the bridge brunch to be held at the Polynesian restaurant on Thursday, Nov. 5, when the two Torrance Woman's clubs, the Seniors and Juniors, stage a benefit. Another pleasant diversion scheduled for the afternoon will be the parade of fall's newest hat fashions furnished by a Hollywood Riviera shop and modeled by members of the clubs. Senior club members modeling will be Mmes. Sid Gans, Andrew Acampora and Allen Pyeatt. Juniors modeling are Mmes. Joseph Boylan, Edward Plehal, Charles Brieler, Don Carlson and Charles Bennett, who will direct the modeling.

Completing plans for the event are Mmes. Andrew Acampora, Senior club; Lee Clotworthy, Junior bridge chairman; A. R. Felando, Jr., Junior ways and means chairman; Charles Briner and Charles Bennett.

The Juniors will use their proceeds from the brunch to purchase CARE school kits for South Viet Nam. These kits are a two-year project undertaken by the General Federation of Women's clubs last year and to be continued through this year.

There are 30,000 children in Viet Nam who must be furnished with these kits in order to attend school. The goal of the Junior club is $200 for the purchase of kits for 200 children which is the most important enemy of subversion.

The Senior club will use its party proceeds for its many club philanthropies.

BRIDAL LOVELINESS... Highlighting the fashion show to be given by the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's church this evening at 8 will be the complete bridal scene portrayed by Sharon Ricci, bride, Jeannie Sprout, bridesmaid, and Jackie Bundy, flower girl. The show will be held at the YMCA, 2320 W. Carson St. Tickets may be obtained from guild members or at the door.

A Peek At Paris

Elegant New Fashions Paraded This Evening

Woman's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will present its annual fashion show this evening at 8 at the YMCA, 2320 W. Carson St. "Echoes from Paris" has been chosen as theme for the parade of new fashions. Decorations will carry out a Parisian motif and Mrs. Alan Moore will serve as narrator.

Modeling fashions from a local shop will be Mmes. Thomas Dacre, Robert Hollister, Robert Leech, J. Parke Montague, D. A. Murphy, George Post, Alma Smith, Russell Thornberg and James Wilkes. Children's and teenage clothes will be shown by Robin Bingham, Judy Mitoma, Jackie Bundy, Peggy Post and Keith Goddard.

Highlight of the evening will be a complete wedding scene with the bride and attendants gowns furnished by a local gown shop.

In this group will be Sharon Ricci, Gail Hyde, Jeannie Sprout, Mardell Clayton, Jackie Bundy and Mrs. Phyllis Post.

During the intermission, dessert will be served by Kathy Fuller, Kathy Halliwell, Ann Heinlein, Nancy Schinley, Susan Sloan, Louise Whisman, Jean Dolg and Christine Schadt, all wearing appropriate costumes.

Numerous door prizes will be awarded during the evening. Tickets may be obtained from any guild member or at the door this evening.

Club Hostess

A Halloween theme in the table decorations, napkins and tallies was used by Mrs. Burton Easley last Friday afternoon when she entertained her club at her home, 3306 Eldorado Ave.

After the luncheon, the afternoon was spent playing bridge with prizes going to Mmes. Philip Halloran, Walter Levy and Parke Montague.

Mrs. Easley's guests were Mmes. Jack Brooks, C. M. Blakeley, W. E. Grubb, R. J. Triplett, Henry Backlund, Gerald Eastham, Montague, Levy and Halloran.

Mrs. Eastham will entertain the club in two weeks.

THINGS TO COME... A brunch followed by bridge or canasta and a good look at the newest in chapeaux are the things lined up by the two Torrance Woman's clubs for an afternoon at the Polynesian restaurant on Nov. 5. A preview of what will take place at this gala benefit is

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

"Bored With Your Attack on Liquor"

Dear Ann: (or should I say Carrie Nation The Second.) I, for one, am mightily bored with your continual attack on liquor. You hammer away so often that I suspect you're either a kitchen drinker or once married to a sponge.

Did it ever occur to you that some people enjoy a pleasant drink now and then? Just to know how far your poison has spread, last night one guy was feeling pretty good and when he went to the bar for another drink his wife said half-kidding and half serious, "I'm going to write to Ann Landers about this."

You keep telling people how damaging liquor is and then you quote doctors to back you up. I'd like to point out that there are more old drunks around than doctors.

— 90 PROOF
Dear 90: The "old drunks" you see around are probably a lot younger than they look. Nothing ages people like too much liquor.

Dear Ann: I'm a girl 16 and have a serious problem which no one seems to be able to solve. Maybe you can help.

I'm going steady with a boy 18. I want to break up with him but I don't know how to do it. I had a slumber party at my house the other night and 14 girls offered ideas but I don't think any of them are very good.

The main trouble is that I just hate to hurt this guy. He is so crazy about me he worships the ground I walk on. I'm afraid if I tell him I don't want to go steady anymore he'll have a nervous breakdown. Please advise me.—F.F.

Dear F.F.: (Femme fatale, of course). Strange that a girl who casts herself in the role of a tender-hearted miss should be so sensitive to the boy's feelings that she would invite 14 girls to submit ideas on how to unload him.

If you really want to break up, just tell the fellow. Period. He'll live. I'll guarantee it.

Dear Ann Landers: In the 20 years we've been married my husband has had 18 different jobs. The major reason he gets fired is because he is late for work so much. He just can't seem to get himself out of bed in the morning.

He blames me entirely and says it's a wife's responsibility to see that her husband gets up. Every morning he storms around hollering "Why didn't you make me go to bed earlier last night?" When I tell him he should go to bed he says, "Shut up and stop nagging me."

He's always the last one to leave a party and he'll watch TV as long as there's some-

Las Vecinas Marks 11th Anniversary

Past Presidents of Las Vecinas will be honored guests today at 1 p.m. in the Banbury Room of the Plush Horse, in celebration of the 11th anniversary of the founding of the club. The second feature of the program will be a panel of Summer Exchange students from Torrance, headed by Mike Robbins of South High School.

Las Vecinas, meaning "The Neighbors," was organized on Oct. 28, 1948 by women residents of Hollywood Riviera and Seaside Ranchos. The Club has established a record combining events of social and cultural nature with philanthropic endeavors during the past 10 years.

The list of past presidents invited to attend this anniversary meeting include Mmes. R. H. Blakeley, Claude Ferrel, Frank Hanover, Max Webber, David Hurford, L. M. Nash, Robert Pinkney, Robert A. Matson, Henry Schmal and Thomas O'Malley.

Winfield-Duehring Names Are Linked in Marriage

Over 200 guests assembled at the Nativity Catholic Church last Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock to attend the wedding of Miss Rita Winfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russavage, 25308 Woodward Ave., Lomita, and Michael Duehring, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Duehring, 1691 Gramercy Avenue.

For her wedding the bride chose a full length gown of Chantilly lace detailed with a scalloped neckline sprinkled with sequins. A shell shaped crown sparkling with sequins secured the illusion veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white orchids, roses and stephanotis. Mr. Russavage escorted the bride to the altar.

Miss Lannie Wallace was the bride's honor attendant. She wore a gown of aqua blue lace over taffeta. Her bouquet was a fan of pink carnations.

John Duehring stood as his brother's best man and ushers were Leo Melvidt and John Chidester.

The Rev. Michael Mosher officiated at the marriage ceremony and Mrs. Neil McConlogue played a background of nuptial music.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the parish hall. Registering the guests were Barbara Duehring and Georgia Duehring.

Both the bride and her husband were graduated from Torrance High School, she in 1959 and he is the class of 1958.

Club Plans Masquerade

"The Mavericks" Square Dance club invites all dancers of the area to join them for a Halloween Masquerade dance on Oct. 30 at 8 p.m. at the Torrance Woman's club, 1422 Encarnacion Ave.

Ghosts, goblins and witches will dance to the calling of Noble Speas.

Costumes are optional, however prizes will be given for the best costumes and for the largest club attendance.

Babb-Burpo Vows Recited In Baptist Church Rites

In a mid-afternoon ceremony on Oct. 18 at the Torrance First Baptist Church, Miss Beverly Joan Babb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Babb, 20124 La Salle Ave., exchanged her wedding vows with Ronald L. Burpo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Burpo, 1564 W. 210th St.

Rev. Morgan Gates, pastor, stood before a flower banked altar to officiate at the marriage. Mrs. Pat Ouwendijk, organist, accompanied Bonnie Medved, soloist, and played the wedding marches.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a gown of white organza with Italian embroidery outlining the neckline of the molded bodice. The full, skirt was floor length. A seed pearl crown held the illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Donna Babb was the maid of honor, wearing turquoise silk organza over taffeta. Her bouquet was of turquoise carnations. Misses Bonnie Lynn Burpo and Tandra Catron were bridesmaids. They were gowned in shrimp pink taffeta and carried matching bouquets.

Little Patricia Burpo, wearing a gown of white tulle and Chantilly lace, was the flower girl and Vernon Burpo carried the rings.

Robert Jacobson stood as best man and ushers were George Taylor, Eddie Clyde Babb, Bill Babcock and Roger Sinclair.
