

PERFECT ATTENDANCE . . . Myrl Rupel, Dave Tanner, Doug Towbridge, Floyd Lee and J. W. Wallace received pins for their record in not missing meetings of the South Torrance Lions club during the past year. The presentation was made at a breakfast at the Entre Nous last Monday morning. President Tanner has two years of perfect attendance to his credit. (Herald photo)

KNIGHTS CITED . . . Phillip Rockstroh (left) Grand Knight of the Queen of Martyrs Council, and James R. O'Toole, Grand Knight of the Los Crusados Council, Knight of Columbus, display trophies presented to them by James Francis Cardinal McIntyre at the 34th anniversary banquet of the Southern California chapter of the Knights of Columbus last week. The two councils were cited for their outstanding work in the recent charity drive for Rancho San Antonio, the Boys Town of the West.

WHALE OF A PARTY . . . Not to be outdone in the Trick 'n Treat department yesterday was Bubbles, the 1700-pound whale that has become the star attraction at Marineland. Nina Shipman, 20th Century-Fox star, showed up as a witch (Marineland publicists said) and did the treating while Bubbles did the tricking.

THE GANDY DANCERS . . . One of the foremost exhibition groups in Southern California, shown here in Kujavian costumes, will perform at 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 21, at the second annual Books and Arts Fair, to be held this year at the Redondo Beach Eagles Hall, 128 S. Catalina.
