Winners of HC Costume Contest Told

Miss Barbara Whittier of 1649 255th St., Harbor City, dressed as "Miss Glamour" in furs and jewels, was the first prize winner of the Halloween costume parade at the Charles F. King Youth Hall, Harbor City Saturday.

Placing first in the boys division was Theodore E. Tielens, 1539 251st, Harbor City, depicting a cave man.

Miss Sharon Davey, 25602 Western Ave., and Ted Osuniga, 1432½ W. Lomita Blvd., placed second in their respective divisions. Sharon wore a flapper costume and Ted, an Indian costume.

Charles F. King, the hall's namesake, was the judge for the Harbor City Chamber of Commerce sponsored event.

Harbor City Boy Scout Troop 743 built and operated various game booths. Scout Mothers Auxiliary sold food and handiwork.

Both adult members and boys of Scout Troop 743 took an active part in making the carnival a success.

Yearbook Competition Won by ECC

New honors were gained by El Camino College publications this week, when the 1959 Warrior, was named the number one junior college yearbook published in Southern California.

A plaque citing the publication for its first place performance was awarded to Editor Dick White of Inglewood at Journalism Day activities on the campus of the University of California at Los Angeles Saturday morning.

In achieving top honors, the Warrior improved upon last year's second-place rating. Competition was inaugurated by the late Edward A. Dickson, a former regent of the university and an active Los Angeles newspaperman. Awards were presented to winnig junior college and high school publications by Mr. Dickson's widow before 2500 press representatives in Royce Hall.

Seven Area Men Pledged To LB Frats

Among the 185 men recently pledged to seven social fraternities at Long Beach State College are seven from the Torrance-Lomita area. Included are:
