

Torrance Takes Early Lead In Community Chest Drive

With the Community Chest's house-to-house drive only a few days old, early results show that Torrance has set the pace for the entire Harbor Area. Within 48 hours of the kickoff, North Torrance unit chairman, Mrs. Richard Gerald, reported the first big success of the campaign. One of her division chairmen, Mrs. Kenneth Uyeda, had gone "over the top" by making more than 100 per cent of her quota.

Mrs. Uyeda is the first division chairman in the Harbor Area to exceed her quota, winning the honor by a margin of a few hours over her nearest challenger, Mrs. Paul Comfort of Gardena.

Mrs. Uyeda's section chairmen whose teams of volunteer workers put Torrance out in front, include Mrs. Clinton Beedon, Mrs. Charles Comstock, Mrs. Alex Dokakis, Mrs. Frank Oldt, and Mrs. Elizabeth McKenna.

Four of the world's greatest rivers, the Yangtze, Mekong, Irrawaddy and Salween, are within 60 miles of each other in the great mountain areas of Burma and China.

Exhibit by El Camino Cameramen Scheduled at South Bay Center

Award winning photographs by Raymond Duerloo and Mrs. Eleanor Gilbert, El Camino College photography students, will go on display Monday at the South Bay Center along with 19 other photographs taken by ECC students.

The exhibit will be in the main mallway of the Center and will be viewed by approximately 175,000 people during the month of November. Lynne Frantz, public relations director at the center, estimated today.

"PRINTS THAT were accepted at the Los Angeles County Fair will be the nucleus of the exhibit, J. A. Grenier, photography instructor noted. "I feel that this is a good opportunity to place the work of El Camino students before the public."

"I'm hoping that if this show turns out, we can exhibit our work in other centers, and that the South Bay Center will invite us back annually."

"I'M ALMOST sure that the exhibit will go to Inglewood after our 30 days stay at South Bay; the place for the exhibit at Inglewood is still not determined," Grenier said.

Garden Checklist

By California Association of Nurserymen

1. Primula malacoides—the dainty Fairy Primrose—can be set out now for color early in the year. Try an edging of them in a partially shaded bed.
2. Stake and level favorite Chrysanthemums so you can divide them next year. Take out varieties you're not wild about and start new ones in spring.
3. Some Azaleas like to rush the season, are showing color already. When transporting them to the garden, you can set them out in pure peat moss. They love it. Be sure to soak the peat overnight before planting.
4. Spring flowering Sweet Peas can be sown now. Dig the trench deep to allow for a good root run and work plenty of manure in under the seed bed.
5. Check foundation plantings for that overgrown look. Don't hesitate to replace an outside shrub with one that won't crowd its neighbors.
