

... Surgery

given around-the-clock nurse attendance.

LITTLE DEBBIE is doing fine and sat up in bed eating her dinner later when a HERALD photographer called to take her picture. She smiled and hugged her toy dog and thinks she just "hurt her tummy."

There is a lot of joy on Ocean Avenue today because parents and neighbors all know there has been a miracle and as Mrs. Feist put it: "I have never seen anything so wonderful, but hope I never witness it again."

was showing an interest in the matter.

THE COUNCIL also dropped a plan to rezone an area bounded by Carson St., Arlington, Plaza Del Amo, and Cabrillo to permit construction of apartments after present buildings had been cleared from the property. A large delegation of residents many of them among the city's "old-timers" were at the meeting to protest the move.

Also dropped, for the present, was a plan to revise the alignment of Torrance Blvd.-Cabrillo Ave. at El Prado to provide more parking space on the city owned lots. The council indicated that the project should be delayed until after Christmas.

A proposal that the site of the former Civic Auditorium be used for parking during the Christmas shopping season was referred to the downtown merchants to permit them to make arrangements directly with Security-First National Bank, present owners of the property.

El Camino Favored
