Annual Affair

Holiday Fashions To Glitter at B&PW Show

With "Horizons Unlimited" as the club slogan for the year, the Torrance Business and Professional Woman's club has chosen "Fashions on Horizons Unlimited" for their annual fashion show and dinner to be held Nov. 16 at 7:30 p.m. at Club Alondra.

Holiday day fashions for both men and women will be featured during the style parade to be held following dinner. Mrs. Ralph E. Moore is serving as chairman for the fashion revue.

Along with the sparkling array of holiday fashions will be fall's latest in sportswear, daytime and after-five creations, states Mrs. Moore. Men's fashions will be provided by a Hollywood Riviera shop and Robert Stewart will be the model.

Modeling the women's fashions will be Mrs. Robert Stewart, Claudia Smith, Diane McNeil, and Jill Ingram. Club members modeling will be Mmes. Tessa Burke, Nina Womack, Velda Wilkins, Teddy DuMont, Ruth Shrum, and Jean Clawson.

Mrs. Virginia Beck will serve as commentator.

Working on the committee with Mrs. Moore are Mmes. Nina Womack, Jean Clawson, Benard Lee, Henry Burke, Hal Massie and Helen Rodgers.

Tickets may be secured from any of the committee members or may be purchased at the door on the night of the event.

Delta Zeta Alums Hear Nurseryman

Members of the South Bay Chapter of Delta Zeta sorority will meet on Wednesday, Nov. 18 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Norman DeWitt, 1003 W. 137th Place, Hawthorne. Guest speaker will be Wally Fisher, representative of the Inglewood Nursery, whose topic will be "Foliage Plants for the Modern Garden." Samples of various plants and colored slides on landscape plantings will be presented. Alumnae in the South Bay area are cordially invited to attend.

Under new business, the chapter will discuss plans for Southern California Council's benefit luncheon fashion show, "Flame Fantasy" to be held on Feb. 6 at the Beverly Hilton Hotel. The philanthropy to benefit from this event is the Uni-Betic Camp for diabetic children, sponsored by the Los Angeles Metabolic Clinic, a non-profit organization, conducted for two weeks each summer in the San Bernardino Mountains. Representing the South Bay Delta Zeta alumnae chapter on the Flame Fantasy committee is Mrs. Jack C. Whipp of Torrance.

Auxiliary Rummage Sale Friday

Lomita Unit 645, American Legion Auxiliary completed plans for a rummage sale to be held tomorrow in the American Legion Hall, 24702 Narbonne Ave., when they met recently with Mrs. Millicent Stambaugh, president. Mrs. Virginia Haslam, chairman, stated the sale will begin at 9 a.m.

Charlotte Dolan, rehabilitation chairman, reported on the gifts taken to the Long Beach V.A. Hospital for the American Legion Auxiliary Gift Shop which opened Nov. 1 at the swimming pool building at the facility. Veteran bed patients are given the opportunity of selecting Christmas presents for their families, then they are gift wrapped by Auxiliary women and mailed to the veteran's home in time for Christmas.

Virginia Basile of Lucille St. was hostess for the dinner meeting of the Past Presidents' Parley, with Annie Olson conducting the business meeting. Others attending were Mary Toombs, Martha Madden, Ellis McCay, Doris Whitmer, Jane Horton and Millicent Stambaugh.

Western Show In Torrance On Saturday

Saturday, Nov. 14 will be an exciting day at the Torrance Elementary school when the PTA presents a Western Show full of variety acts.

A chuck wagon will open at 11 a.m. on the school grounds and the show begins at 1:30 p.m.

This show troupe has ridden in the Rose parade each New Year's Day for the past six years.

After a beautiful grand entry, there will be trick and fancy roping, and beautiful horses will dance. The world's greatest rope jumping dog act is also featured and there will be western guitar playing and singing and clowns will add to the gaiety.

Bleachers at the school will seat 800 and all children and adults are invited to come to the school for a chuck wagon lunch and to see the colorful show.

Barbecue Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass entertained three couples at a barbecue chicken dinner at their home 1614 Beech Ave. Thursday evening. Their guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Kenneth Figgins, H. R. Richards and B. W. Roberts.
