Port Artists Showing Work In San Pedro

Paintings from the San Pedro Fall Show will be shown at the Hacienda Hotel and at the First National Bank of San Pedro until Nov. 27. Paintings will include the award-winning paintings. The monthly meeting of the association will be held at the Gallery, 820 S. Beacon St., San Pedro, Thursday, Nov. 19, at 7:30 p.m.

JOHN LIEU will demonstrate some of his techniques and show some of his paintings, memory sketches of Hong Kong. In 1953-55 Lieu received private instruction from Professor Yen Wen Lang, principal of Soochow Art Institute of China. For two years he was assistant teacher at the Oriental Art Studios of Shanghai. Then in Hong Kong he spent some time in stage designing, mural painting and portraiture.

AT LAST HE and his father fled Red China on a fishing junk, leaving all their worldly goods behind them, and joined the mother and a sister who had left before.

Now Mr. Lieu works at the Broadway Department Store, attends classes evenings, and paints portraits. He has several Palos Verdes people as his patrons.

His work will be on display at the Gallery Nov. 19 through Nov. 22 daily from 2 to 5 p.m.

Brownie Troop 2356 Christmas is coming chorused the girls of Brownie Troop 2356 at their last meeting held at the home of their co-leader, Mrs. Wayne Snyder of 2627 W. 175th St. Their leader, Mrs. John Ferriola, assisted the eager Brownies in starting their Christmas projects for this year. The meeting closed with the girls singing several of their favorite songs.
