"The skirl o' bagpipes will fill the air when the Tam O'Shanter Pipe Band starts proceedings under the leadership of Pipe-major John Turnbull," Murdock said. Among the tunes those attending can expect to hear will be "The

Aeronca Awarded Big Contract by Convair

Aeronca Manufacturing Corp. has been awarded a contract by Convair, a Division of General Dynamics Corp., for the production of brazed stainless steel honeycomb panels used in the Convair upersonic B-58 bomber. This award makes Aeronca one of the largest suppliers of production panels in the world.

The decision to award the brazed stainless steel honeycomb fabrication to Aeronca was based, according to a Convair spokesman, on the firm's long record of high quality, on-schedule delivery, and comparatively low cost production.

KNOW YOUR NAVY

JOHN PAUL JONES

OFTEN CALLED THE "FATHER OF THE AMERICAN NAVY," JOHN PAUL JONES WAS A FIGHTING SAILOR. HIS FAMOUS CRY, "I HAVE NOT YET BEGUN TO FIGHT" HAS BEEN AN INSPIRATION AND GUIDING LIGHT OF AMERICAN NAVY MEN EVER SINCE THE BLOODY BATTLE BETWEEN JONES' BONHOMME RICHARD AND THE BRITISH MAN-O-WAR SERAPIS IN 1779. OUT-GUNNED AND OUT-MANNED, BUT NEVER OUT-FOUGHT, JONES VANQUISHED THE LARGER SERAPIS THROUGH SHEER SKILL AND COURAGE.

Sword Dancer Nation's Top Money Winner

Mrs. Isabel Dudge Sloane's Brookmeade Stable, which had assumed the position of top money-winner in October, continues in that role as her star performer, Sword Dancer, displaced C. W. Smith's Hillsdale as the leading money-winnig horse in the nation.

In other departments there were no changes: Willie Shoemaker, Robert Ussery and Bill Hartack continued to top the jockeys in that order while Vester R. "Tennessee" Wright maintained a comfortable lead over William Hal Bishop on the trainers' list.

The national Standings, January 1 through October 31, according to statistics made available by Triangle Publications:
