

Foreign Students Visit Navy Aircraft Carriers

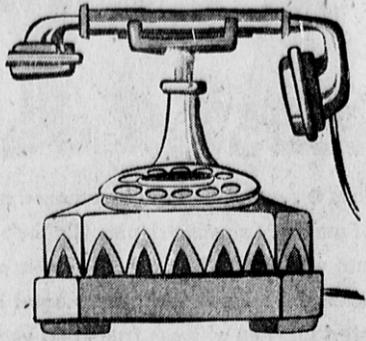

Seventeen foreign exchange students who are attending high schools in this area were given a tour of our Navy's aircraft carriers on Saturday. They went aboard the USS Hornet which was one of our front line fighting ships during World War II and is now converted for anti-submarine warfare.

The tour was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Martois. Mrs. Martois is the president of the local chapter of American Field Service, the organization that arranges for homes for the students when they are in this country and select the American students who go to other countries. Their guides for the tour were Chief Gunner's Mate M. D. Bradley and Thomas A. Coleman, Boatwain's Mate First Class, of the local Navy Recruiting office whose office is located at 16422 South Vermont Ave.

Students making the tour, the country they are from and the school they are now attending are: Maria Del Corti, Argentina and Cetin Vcak, Turkey (Gardena); Guillermo Alonzo Berrios, Chile and Ayse Zafer Cetinkaya, Turkey (Hawthorne); Engin Atac, Turkey and Valerie Elizabeth Ward, England (San Pedro); Carlos S. Feitosa, Brazil and Ragnheidur Olafdotter, Iceland (Leuzinger); Ernst Karner, Austria and Maija Saukkonen, Finland, (El Segundo); Hugo De Matos-Gomes, Portugal, Francisco Gerard, France, and Farida Auzam, Pakistan, (Westchester); Adam Sujadi, Indonesia (North); Walter Stocker, Switzerland, (Torrance); Giampaolo Bedeschi, Italy, (South); and Tor Audun Ramstad, Norway, (Inglewood).

AT LAST

OUR EXPANSION

HAS BEEN COMPLETED!

Bank of America's Torrance Branch has been expanded to make banking here even faster, easier and more pleasant.

Much of the expansion has been "backstage"—a new supply room, a storage vault and more work space for our staff. But we have also added extra convenience for our customers—an additional merchant window, another night depository, one more escrow booth and three more windows in our Commercial and Note Department.

Top it all off with a fresh coat of paint inside and out, and you have a more attractive (and more efficient) place to do all your banking.

We hope our expansion has not inconvenienced you during your visits to the bank. Thanks for bearing with us through the clatter and confusion.
