... Ann Landers

 Isn't the same as LEARNING it.

So, for the time being, you poor abused slaves are going to have to use the antiquated method of staying up and studying which probably means cutting down coffee dates to four nights a week.

Dear Ann: We moved to this awful dump two months ago because my dad got a good price for our nice home.

I am ashamed of this terrible place and don't want to bring any of my friends here. I am afraid they will lose respect for me if they see the kind of place I live in. A certain boy has been asking me for dates. Shall I meet him at the movie? Maybe if he gets real sweet on me he could take the shock of this house. Please help.—LIVING IN A DUMP

Dear Living: If the house would turn your friends against you they aren't worth much. Invite people over and make no apologies.

Does almost everyone have a good time but you? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Well-Liked," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

Warnock Family

Having Thanksgiving Day dinner at Allen Center on Terminal Island are Mr. and Mrs. John C. Warnock, Jr. of Torrance, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Warnock of Long Beach, Dwain Warnock, Menlo Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Warnock of South Gate.

HAPPINESS FOR SHUT-INS... Violet Blue Birds of Walteria enjoyed a real Thanksgiving by carrying out their Blue Bird wish of happiness for others. The girls made "turkey day" favors for their friends at the Correll Rest home. Here visiting with two of the oldsters, Abraham Forshay and Helen Carier, are Blue Birds Emmalean Bigelow, Sandra Marsha, Blanche Hebestreit, and Gloria Bourassa. Other Bluebirds, who joined in the singing and visiting were Linda Quandt, Connie Sharp, Pamela Stewart, Patsy Wallace and Marie Ward. The rest home is located at 2834 Pacific Coast Hwy. in Walteria.

New Guild Officers Installed

Annual meeting of the combined guilds for the introduction of new officers for the year was held at St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church on Wednesday, Nov. 18 at 8 in the school hall at 1900 South Tuliita. The meeting was preceded by installation of officers in the church at 7:45 p.m. Approximately 400 women attended the meeting.

Guest speaker for the evening was Rev. John Sheridan of Our Lady's Chapel in Los Angeles. He spoke on women's influence in today's society.

The introduction of the new officers was made by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Daniel P. Collins, pastor of St. Lawrence Martyr. The new president for the combined guilds is Mrs. John McCarry.

The officers to assist Mrs. McCarry in the coming year are: Mrs. Edward Rea, vice-president; Mrs. John Carlisle, secretary; Mrs. A. L. Puetz, treasurer; Mrs. Herbert Grosswendt, spiritual program coordinator; Mrs. Louis Fucci, publicity.
