MR. AND MRS. CLARENCE WHITE ... Married 50 Years

Clarence Whites Feted On Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence White, 1914 162nd St., Gardena, long-time residents of Torrance, were honored at a reception at their home on Sunday, Nov. 22, in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary.

The couple were married in Sanger and came to Torrance in 1933. They moved to Gardena in 1942.

The Whites have eight children, all of whom were here for the wedding anniversary party. They are Mrs. Clara Stephens, Wilmington; Lloyd A. White, Belmont Shore; Mrs. Muriel Briney, Belmont Shore; Bruce White, Wilmington; Mrs. Alta Ferrin, Colton; Donald E. White, Venice; Ray White, Torrance; and Russell C. White, Ashland, Oregon. Russell White and his son, Damon, arrived in time for the celebration.

Another highlight was the arrival of Mrs. Edith Minter of Sanger who knew the Whites when they were newly-weds.

The Whites have 17 grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. Among their many gifts was a money tree.

For Sunday's party Mrs. White wore a white brocade suit with black accessories. Her corsage, a gift from her husband, was white roses sprinkled with gold.

Bouquets of autumn flowers and birds of paradise decorated the rooms. The refreshment table was decorated in gold and white with a huge 50th anniversary cake as the centerpiece.
