Brownie Troop 2461

The regular monthly meeting of the Mother's Club of the Brownie Troop 2461 sponsored by the "Women of the Moose" was held at the home of Joyce Croskey on Nov. 24 with 17 mothers present. They were gathered to discuss plans for the future of their girls.

A Christmas party for the girls will be held on Dec. 21, at the home of the leader, Virginia Olson, with the help of the co-leader, Pauline Marshall. At that time the birthday of Becky Gull will be remembered.

On Nov. 30 a birthday party was held in honor of Laura Robertson and Karen Olson. Each received a Brownie doll as a gift from the Mother's Club. Films were shown to the 23 girls and five mothers.

The last paper drive was a big success. All the girls, their parents and also their neighbors were given much praise.

The calendar sale is in full swing and the troop is assured a complete sellout.

Friday, Nov. 27, the Brownies and their mothers went on a tour of the San Pedro Telephone Co. They were served refreshments later.

At this meeting the leader was honored. As it was Virginia's birthday, the women presented her with a corsage and a gift. The gift was one of importance. This was her dress that she needed and wanted for the "escort team" of the Moose Chapter No. 44.

Helen Phillips and Neva Still have started an intermediate Scout Troop. They already have 14 girls. Good luck!

The girls will carol for the Women of the Moose on Dec. 16 at their party and again on Dec. 20 at the party for their children. Then on Dec. 23 the Brownies will go caroling to benefit their friends and neighbors.

A "first aid" class will begin Feb. 1. Anyone interested should contact Mrs. Olson. This would be good training for any women interested in becoming a troop leader.

Dates to remember—Jan. 9, a skating party and Feb. 22, a tour of the Helms Bakery.

The next meeting of the Mothers' Club will be a Christmas party and gift exchange Dec. 21 at the home of Margaret Dossey.

Harbor City Cub Pack

At the November pack meeting Den No. 10 of the Harbor City Cub Scouts took all the awards for the evening.

They led the opening and closing ceremonies, gave a skit called "The Vipers," won the award for having most parents in attendance, plus taking the inspection award with them, too.

Boy scouts Jerry and Ronnie Murakami from Troop 743 did the inspection.

Otis Williams showed movies he took of the Navajo Indians which he visits every year. It showed how they lived and dressed.

Mrs. Frank Samson gave awards to the following cubs: Den 1, Mark Thurber, denner stripe; Douglas White, Ass't. dinner stripe, Den 3, William Lorenzen, denner stripe, 1 yr. pin; KJent Coble, Ass't. denner stripe, Den 4, Martin Jones, denner stripe; Eddie Allison, Ass't. denner stripe, Den 6, Steve Hamblet, denner stripe, 1 yr. pin; Jackie Fulcher, Ass't. denner stripe, Den 7, Anthony Osuniga, denner stripe; Steven Silkotch, Ass't. denner stripe; Den 10, Steven Cheek, denner stripe; Ronald Henderson, Ass't. denner stripe.

Parents Award went to Mrs. Albert Dudley, 2 yr. pin, and a Den Mothers Award.
