Tartars Score 'Revenge' Win Over Micohi, 60-55

By BILL SCHIPPER

A red hot Torrance basketball team set the nets on fire in the first half and outlasted a Mira Costa splurge in the second half Friday night to register what the Tartars termed a "revenge victory" over Mustang Coach Dean Sempert, 60-55 in the Torrance gym. The Host Tartars sent 58 per cent of their first half field goals through the rim, and owned a "comfortable" 36-21 halftime lead after holding an almost unbelievable 20-5 first quarter margin.

Lefty Bill Reinert, the finest southpaw shooter Torrance has had since Bob Moon in 1954, scored 14 points on six field goals and two free throws in the first half to lead the surge, and wound up with 17 for the evening. He also pulled down 18 rebounds.

Bill Roberts, a junior, had 20 rebounds and Lyn Keller 13 as Torrance dominated both offensive and defensive factions of the heated non-league game.

A DELIGHTED Torrance coach, Will Boerger, said after the game that he "incited" his boys to beat the defending Bay League champions because of a "rob" in the Pacific Shores Tournament, where Micohi and Sempert, one of three sponsoring members, was one of the selectors for the all-tournament team.

"We should have had Reinert on the all-tournament team," Boerger said, "but somehow they left him off. He played four games, had 45 rebounds, and 69 points. Our boys were mad, and they took it out on Mira Costa tonight." Torrance was second in the Shores consolation bracket. Mira Costa, third in the championship bracket, had three players on the all-tourney team.

TORRANCE'S Bob Weister was another big gun in the Torrance attack, hitting for 16 points, mostly on long overhead jump shots from the corner. It was Weister's scoring bugle late in the second half which helped keep Torrance ahead of the pursuing Mustangs.

At one time in the game Torrance had as much as a 23 point lead, but Micohi, which has lost only seven games in the past two seasons, whittled away and probably would have overtaken the leaders if the game had lasted another two minutes.

"All I know is we needed that first half lead to beat Mira Costa," Boerger said. Torrance has a 5-4 non-league standing.

Marie Acosta Scores Triple Win in Track

Wowing the fans with their form, South High's first all-girl track team won half of the running events at the Aviation High sponsored quadrangle track meet this week, with Marie Acosta stealing the show with three first place finishes. South entered 13 of the 16 running events held, and came away with eight first place ribbons.

Acosta, a cheerleader, won the 50 (6.8), 100 (12.6) and 220 (28.0) in registering a rare triple.

Events were run in the freshman, sophomore, and junior-senior classifications and a good-sized spectator turnout was on hand for the novelty all-girls meet.

South High track coach Dick Scully hopes to carry the idea over to the 1960 track season.

South High event winners:
50 yd. dash (jr-sr)—Marie Acosta, 6.8.
50 yd. dash (soph)—Colleen Hadley, 7.2.
50 yd. dash (fr)—Anita Gordon, 7.3.
75 yd. dash (jr-sr)—Chris Fletcher, 10.2.
75 yd. dash (fr)—Joy Kinyon, 10.4.
100 yd. dash (jr-sr)—Marie Acosta, 12.6.
100 yd. dash (fr)—Linda Haley, 13.6.

Eight Champs

Torrance Hi Dominates Wrestling

Torrance High's novice wrestlers dominated the Pioneer League's annual wrestling tournament with eight champions and three runners-up in the 12 division mat carnival, held Friday at Torrance.

The Tartar matmen swept the lightweight and heavy divisions, to dominate the four and a half hour tourney, which saw 209 matches held.

Matches were held simultaneously on four mats as 225 non-varsity lettermen wrestled competitors.

Torrance's Earl Yanase (98) and Willie Patterson (130) won their final championship matches on pins. Yanase is a sophomore, Patterson a junior.

Other division winners from Torrance were Gilbert Griego (106), Rich Cicero (115), Don Dobrick (136), Mike Irvine (165), Jack Singer (183), and Danny Gentis, heavyweight. With the exception of Gentis and Singer, all are underclassmen.

Coupled with eight varsity returning lettermen, the novice showing indicates "possibilities" for the Tartars in the Pioneer League and CIF. Coach Bill Hoag said.

Wayne Hughes (130), Alan Billings (157) and Ed Houston (183) were the Torrance runners-up, while South High had five second place men.

Final matches:
98—Yanase (T) pinned Nelson. (L).

North Hi Thumped By Ventura, 76-54

North High's Saxons were bombarded by a sure-shooting Ventura basketball team Friday night, taking a 76-54 loss as all four divisions wound up on the short end of the score.

The JV's were edged, 49-47, and the Bees and Ceas were soundly thumped.

Ventura pulled away shortly before the half, and held a 12 point edge before sweeping into the varsity victory. North's top one-two scorers, Ron Combs and Sam Edwards, accounted for 15 and 13 points, respectively.

The loss gave the Saxons a 1-5 record, which they hoped to better in a game against Lennox last night. Score is not available for publication.

North goes into the Beverly Hills Tournament this week, opening on Wednesday.

Bowl-O-Drome's Wednesday night Mixed Five rolled into the 14th week of the winter kegling season with Baer's Draperies heading the "A" division, two games over second spot holder Chandler's Sand & Gravel. Rossman Lumber rides in third, nine back of the league lears, followed by Rancher's Corner, and X-Ello Shade Co. R. Barton; going the route for the Ranchers' mob tossed together a nifty 604&57-6661 set to ride in the top slot for the men's individual season series honors as teammate J. C. Montgomery racked up an impressive 60&57-658 for the female high. Frenchie's Cafe representative, G. Edwards, uncorked the men's season game high, connecting for a whopping 267&2-269 while C. Taylor, Balls-O-Fire member, put forth the top effort for the gals, coming up with a blistering 241&34-275 pitch.

FRONTIER REALTY and Avalon Builders' Supply share the top slot in Wednesday nights Mixed Five in the "B" division. Hamatures trail the leaders by only a slim 2½ game margin, followed by the Rasputin's Liquor quintet, Torrance Electronics, Yellow Cab, and the South Bay Humane Society. League leading hurler, M. Belt connected for the men's topper on the individual season series honor roll, uncorking an impressive 615&54-669 three game effort as teammate C. Crawford took over the men's game high with his powerful 257&21-278 solo. D. Loveridge. Hamatures kegler, claims the gals series high with her dandy 532&108-640 set while K. Arnold, rolling for the Rasputin's Liquor quintet, tossed out the female game high, 209&38-247.

HARBOR LIONS loop hitting Bowl-O-Drome lanes on the Wednesday night schedule going into the 13th week of their winter session with the North Long Beach No. 1 leading the pack, 8½ games over Wilmington No. 1 and Torrance No. 2 sharing the second spot.

South Hopes Up After Upset Win

What looked like a sour 1959-60 basketball season for South High was spiced with a little sugar Thursday when the Spartans, going to the bench for help, upset favored Redondo in a see-saw thriller, 45-44, in a non-league game at South's new gymnasium.

What made the victory doubly sweet was the fact that Redondo holds a 64-62 decision over South's brother and rival—Torrance—and South was minus the services of its two "aces"—Joe Austin and Jim Mannix.

AUSTIN FOULED out with two minutes remaining to play in the third quarter after collecting seven points, and Mannix is out of the line-up with a badly sprained ankle. Redondo failed to adjust its shooting sights to South's court, hitting for a meager 28 per cent from the floor. However, the Seahawks missed by half a second of turning the tide as a desperation corner jump shot by Billy DeCarion went in after the final buzzer had sounded.

South — which found a sparkplug in sub. Bob Wehrhan, who came in late in the game to score four points, is scheduled to play two games this week — Tuesday at Lynwood and Thursday against Mira Costa.

ed with five personals. Thursday, and scored on a field goal and a couple of free throws in the waning moments of the contest to ward off a serious Redondo threat.

South depleted a 22-13 halftime deficit to surge ahead by as much as five points in the fourth quarter. The key men—Wehrhan and Andrews, both juniors — are up from a championship Bee team of a year ago.
