Jean Klaesges Celebrates 6th Birthday

Jean Klaesges, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klaesges, 2713 Monterey Ave., celebrated her sixth birthday recently with a group of her kindergarten and neighborhood friends.

The family patio was gaily decorated with balloons and a pink and white birthday cake centered the table.

Games were played with prizes going to Timmy Gaines and Steven Goode. Refreshments were served after which Jean opened her gifts.

Attending the party were Tony Rios, Danny Hoch, Debbie Cannon, Donna Fulton, Maureen Dooley, Cathie Gorgalis, Jenny Thompkins, Peggy Springer, Steven Goode, Timmy Gaines, Jean Binder, Susan David, and Cathy Klaesges.

Sending gifts but unable to attend, were Terry Wheeler, and Jean's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Klaesges of Minneapolis and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stipp of Redding, Calif.

Puppet Show Set Dec. 29

As a special fund raising project the Coast Nursery School, a non-profit cooperative, is presenting the Bob Baker Marionettes on Dec. 29, at the Parkway Elementary School, 220 Via Rivera, Torrance. There will be a show at 11 a.m. and another at 1 p.m. All those attending must have tickets.

Those interested in attending may obtain tickets by phoning Mrs. Robert Guethlein.

Mr. Baker's clever marionettes are familiar to many Southern Californians and especially familiar to television viewers. The puppets have appeared on a number of major television shows including the Chevy Show with Shirley Temple.

Holiday Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Robinson, 3622 W. 172nd St., left Friday by car for Phoenix, Ariz., to spend a few days before taking the plane to Detroit. They will spend some time there with relatives and will go on to Boston to spend Christmas with their mothers.

Job's Daughters Install New Officers in Colorful Service

Miss Beverly Ann Orend was installed as Honored Queen of the Torrance Job's Daughters Bethel 50 in an impressive ceremony at the Masonic Temple. Carrying out the theme, "Beneath the Cross," decorations were in purple and white.

Installed with Miss Orend were Georgia Rae Powell, senior princess; Jerry Yancey, junior princess; Patricia Woodman, guide and Judie Sherwood, marshal.

Appointive officers installed were Susan Sparks, musician; Gayle Hoy, recorder; Carole Woodman, senior custodian; Bethy Kealey, junior custodian; Pat Hardy, Sharonne Mascola, Judy Petty, Pam Haas, Pattie Fowler, messengers; Sarah Pennington and Sally Biscoff, guards.

Others were Susan Smart, treasurer; Danno Meredith, librarian; Sandy Crabtree, chaplain.

Bonnie Kail, retiring Honored Queen, served as the installing officer. Assisting her were Mary Margaret Blount, guide; Sharon Neely, marshal; Kay

Smith, recorder; Jeanette Wright, chaplain; Linda Simpson and Susan MacDougal, custodians; Marilyn Holcomb, musician and La Verne Lewis, electrician.

Robert Fulford served as master of ceremonies. Opening the program was the escort of Mrs. Barbara Polliard, guardian and Leonard Babcock, associate guardian.

Diana Cook sang "I'll Walk with God" and "Let There be Peace on Earth." The invocation was given by Mr. Babcock.

For the first time, the Bethel Choir under the direction of Mrs. J. Hoy, participated in the installation.

Mr. Michael Orend presented the new Honored Queen with her gavel and Job's Daughters diamond pin.

In the mothers ceremony, Mrs. Orend and Mrs. Kail were presented with bouquets of roses. The program closed with the benediction by Mr. Babcock.

The guardian council consists of Mrs. Barbara Polliard, guardian; Leonard Babcock, associate guardian; Mrs. Jessie Fowler, secretary; Mrs. Betty Meredith, treasurer; Mrs. Helen Alter, music; Mrs. Elsie Power, sociability; Mrs. Olene Halquist, paraphernalia; Mrs. Betty Woodman, finance; Mrs. Eunice Crabtree, hospitality; Mrs. Jane Mascola, epochs; Mrs. Josephine Orend, goodwill; and George Powell, fraternal relations.

A reception and dance followed the installation. Misses Lynne Hyde and Denise Hunter served as hostesses. Ushers were Stan Gonta and Roy Sherwood.
