School Close For Holiday Recess Friday

Torrance school will let out tomorrow for two weeks of Christmas vacation. Classes will resume again on Monday, Jan. 4.

In addition to regular classes and studies, many students are making Christmas presents for their parents — ranging from handprints and silhouettes for younger children to such complicated items as a mileage-per-gallon computer worked out by one upper grade class. Youngsters are busy making candles, candleholders, jewelry boxes out of egg cartons, wastebaskets out of ice cream cartons, decorated plates, and many other things designed to please parents. Three schools — Newton, Wood and Yukon — are cooperating with PTAs in sending toys to the Navajo Indians

Hugh E. Boyanton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Boyanton of 4724 Del Amo, and John P. Stafford, of 20330 Anza, graduated from recruit training Nov. 27 at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp", included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.
