CDA Court Stages Gala Yule Party

A white tree, laden with gifts for members and guests, also food for the needy, set the pattern for the attractive decor at the Christmas party staged Monday evening in Nativity hall, by Court St. Catharine, Catholic Daughters of America. Small net trees and arrangements of pine cones centered the long tables where guests were seated for refreshment. Bits of pine bough were beribboned and bedecked as individual corsages. Pine boughs also served as background for groups of carolers used about the hall. The "for real" carolers, a group of seventh and eighth grade girls from Nativity Catholic school, put in an appearance and sang for the group.

The attractive decorations, which put everyone in a festive mood, were in charge of a committee headed by one of the new members recently initiated, Mrs. Victor E. Benstead.

Mrs. Robert O'Brien and Miss Virginia Shaner were co-chairmen for the evening, and their assistants, in addition to Mrs. Benstead, included Mesdames Frank Zboyan, Blake E. Welstead, John F. Gitclier, Peter O'Brien, Charles Butterfield, Robert Schmidt, Earl F. Holmstead, and Gordon Hix.

During a short business meeting which preceded the party, Mrs. Louis Derouin, social welfare chairman, told of the Thanksgiving party staged at Harbor General hospital, and of plans for the Christmas party. The delegates that had attended the civic meeting to eliminate smut, gave their report.
