Supervisor Urges Liquor Ban at Office Parties

The serving or drinking of liquor at Christmas parties in County offices is prohibited by the Board of Supervisors, under a long-standing policy adopted on motion of Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

Today he urged all businesses and industries to follow the County's example and forego the serving of liquor at Christmas and New Year's office and plant parties.

Supervisor Hahn suggested that employees who are given all or part of December 24 as a holiday attend the 12 1/2 hour free Christmas program at the Los Angeles Memorial Sports Arena, as a substitute for office parties.

The program will begin at 9:30 in the morning and last until 10 p.m. Christmas eve. More than 350 members of church choirs, soloists, and organists are donating their time and talents to provide the people of Southern California with a program of continuous Christmas music, he declared.

Free parking will be provided on the parking lot south of the Sports Arena.

The Coliseum Commission authorized the 12 1/2 hour program as a Christmas gift to the public, and it is hoped that the event will become a beautiful, new Christmas tradition for Southern California.

Working with Supervisor Hahn in planning the program are Commissioners B. Jack Ansley and A. E. England. The Southside Chamber of Commerce is co-sponsoring the program.

A VITAL MESSAGE FOR OUR STEELWORKERS

"Break the Union? Certainly not! Here's why!"

1. The Company will continue the Union Shop and dues checkoff.
2. The Company will study 2-B with your Union.
3. The Company will study your seniority problems with your Union at your plant.
4. The Company will strengthen service protection of longer-service employees.
5. The Company will grant two wage increases, improve pensions and insurance, and will not take away the 17¢ cost-of-living.
