Home Savings to Open Local Office With Ribbon-Cutting

Home Savings and Loan Association, the nation's largest and strongest, opens its 23rd office tomorrow in Torrance, the city ranked third among communities of Los Angeles County in value of building permits.

The redesigned and renovated building is the site of Torrance's old City Hall at 1511 Cravens Ave.

Invited to the ribbon-cutting ceremonies are Albert Isen, mayor of Torrance; the City Council; George Stevens, city manager; J. H. Paget, president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce; Howard Ahmanson, chairman of the board of Home Savings; and Kenneth D. Childs, Home's president.

AN ADDED GUEST of note is 1959's Miss Torrance, 17-year-old Betty Baker.

Home Savings' grand opening celebration, extending from Dec. 28 through Jan. 9, 1960, has as its theme a Hawaiian Holiday. Thousands of free gifts, ranging from a new Philco portable transistor television set, an 8mm movie camera, to free Hawaiian dinners and guest pocs, will be given to those who attend the festivities.

The Hawaiian theme was selected for the gala event, to honor America's newest state, and incidentally, Home's latest office. The winner of the grand prize drawing will spend five glorious days at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel on the colorful island paradise. The only requirement is that those entering the drawing deposit their names at Home's new office before noon, Jan. 9th.

DEC. 28th ALSO sees the opening of Home's new Encino building. This is all part of Home Savings' $5,000,000 expansion program that comprises the construction of eight new permanent offices, of which Torrance and Encino are two.

The $5,000,000 being spent in the new construction-and-improvement program will "better accommodate" thousands of savers, stated Howard Ahmanson, Home's board chairman. Such areas as Arcadia, Buena Park, Garden Grove, Lakeview, Whittier, and Victorville are listed on the new program.

APPOINTED TO the executive position of managing Home Savings' newest office is Jerome B. Scott, 51, formerly

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK

In Torrance Markets

Traditions bring happiness to families . . . and our holidays are a storehouse for a myriad of beautiful customs. Many of our traditions are brought down to us through religion, and through family customs. But some of our happiest occasions are tied in with our communities. Here is where newcomers to California . . . and there are so many of us . . . may have to build "new" traditions.

Are you familiar with Las Posadas? You might borrow a tradition from our Mexican neighbors. Ask a Mexican family to tell you about the celebration of Las Posadas which ends in feasting and in the breaking of the pinata. The choosing, filling, hanging and breaking of a pinata is wonderful fun. You can either make or buy your pinata. They come in many shapes . . . animals, birds, or conventional figures. And they come in many, many bright, bright colors. Inside the pinata is just a clay pot . . . but it holds candies and small gifts which shower down on the children.

"Traditional" Menus Whether the dinner menu is built around turkey, chicken, duck, goose, roast beef or ham will be decided on family custom. But here in California we can establish some interesting new "traditions" in the accompanying salads, vegetables and desserts. Think of the beautiful, tart-sweet fruit appetizer or salad possible from the lovely fruits in our markets for the holidays:

- Apples, Avocados, Berries . . . strawberries and cranberries, Grapes, Grapefruit, Lemons, Oranges, Pears, Persimmons, Papayas, Pineapples, Tangerines, Tangelos

BRADFORD HONORED . . . Walter C. Bradford, who will retire next Thursday after 17 years with the city, was honored this week by fellow employees at the city hall. Here he cuts a cake during a luncheon at which he was guest of honor. The city council officially cited him for his outstanding contributions to the city in a resolution Tuesday. (Herald Photo)

A VITAL MESSAGE FOR OUR STEELWORKERS

"What about 2-B?"

Collective bargaining is a two-way street. The Company is willing to give you higher wages, better insurance at less cost to you, bigger pensions, more protection for longer service, and continued cost-of-living protection. That's all "give" on our part.

It's no secret that the steel industry faces strong competition from other materials and from foreign-made steel. At United States Steel we also face competition from other steel companies. All we want is a reasonable chance to compete with these other materials and other steel producers.

We want to sit down and work this problem out with your Union officers. If there is no agreement, then we think it reasonable to arbitrate.

We ask this in return for the many things we are offering. We want you to know our side of the story.

The Company is not trying to "break the Union." The proposed contract will enable the Company to conduct its business in an orderly and efficient manner, which will be good for everyone concerned. Naturally, when it can do that, everyone benefits.

Important Contract Proposals

- 1. Wages . . . 6¢ to 12¢ an hour increase October 1, 1960 and another increase of same amount October 1, 1961.
2. Cost-of-living . . . the 17¢ cost-of-living adjustment is continued. It can be increased but not reduced.
3. Local Working Conditions . . . no immediate change. Union and Company will both study and try to agree on necessary changes. If no agreement, arbitration.
4. Insurance . . . Company will pay all costs of basic life insurance and sickness and accident benefits—plus more coverage for both.
5. Pensions . . . bigger pension checks—better early retirement opportunities.
6. Stronger Seniority Rights for long-service employees.
