By Douglas Aircraft Co.

Appointment of Kenneth G. Farrar as vice president in charge of manufacturing for the Douglas Aircraft company has been announced by President Donald W. Douglas Jr. Farrar has been general manager of the company's Long Beach Division since September, 1953, and a vice president of the company since April, 1954. Vice president-general managers of the five Douglas divisions at Santa Monica, Long Beach, El Segundo, Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Charlotte, No. Carolina, will report to him on all matters concerning manufacturing.

Most Prosperous
Business Year
Draws to End

Southern California drew to a close its most active and prosperous business year last week, according to Security First National Bank. Despite the steel strike, tight money and a barely horizontal trend in the giant aircraft industry, the bank's research department reports new records have been set in nearly every important phase of the local economy.

Menorah Men's Club Planning
Travel Talks

A special program will be featured at the next general meeting of the Temple Menorah Men's Club on the evening of Tuesday, Jan. 12. Two of its members, Paul Mandel and Fred Spangler, have recently returned from trips to Israel, Europe and the Middle East. They will present a program of slides and a discussion of highlights of their respective trips. Of special interest are some of the current practices and customs of the people of Israel. A short business meeting will precede the program at 8:30 p.m.
