

Seaside Church Annual Meeting

The annual congregational meeting will be held this Sunday. The annual business meeting of the Seaside Evangelical and Reformed church will be held at the church following a pot luck supper. Nominees for the consistency are Dean Fisher, Richard Evans, Richard Starr, Mrs. Rosemary Tuttle, George Hill, and Howard Lough.

Also reports on the program and activities of the last year will be given by each organization, and activities for the following year will be outlined.

Rev. William Schatz will be a series of three sermons for January answering the question "What can we expect from our Faith?" The first sermon is "Happiness Enriches Child Care is provided during worship service."

Church school begins at 9:20. The adult study class meeting at 9:20 is beginning its investigation of H. Keys' book "Making Ethical Decisions."

Calvary Church To Install New Officers Sunday

The newly elected church officers will be installed into their respective offices at the 7:30 p.m. service of the Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd. The pastor, Rev. H. Earl Kuester, will preside at the service, which will include a rededication of the officers who will be continuing in their present capacities into the new year. Fifty officers are expected to participate.

Seventy persons have signed their names in the pulpit Bible, indicating their intention to read the Bible through in 1960. The Bible reading assignment for next week will be Genesis, Chapters 24-50. The pastor will again deliver sermons based on texts in the portion assigned next Sunday. At the 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. duplicate services he will preach on "Jacob: Trophy of Grace," and at the 7:30 p.m. service on "Joseph: From Prisoner to Prime Minister."

Alondra Park Planning New Dance Class

New classes in dance for children will be forming in the next month at Alondra Park. Classes will be closed after the first of February to new registrations. Bring your girls and boys in and let them join in with us to see if they would enjoy participating in this activity.

The classes are held on Tuesday afternoon. The schedule: 2:30 p.m., Rhythms, folk, and tap for ages 4 - 6 years; 3:30 p.m., Folk and tap dancing for ages 7 - 10 years; and 4:30 p.m., Folk and tap dancing for ages 11 and older.

The next special events in which the classes will be participating, are the Easter program and local and district May festivals.

The Saturday night Square Dance Groups for children and adults had their first meeting of a new class Saturday, Jan. 2. Nobel Spees, the caller, states that registration will be open for another two weeks.

Civitan Club's Preseident Here

Four area Civitan clubs will join forces to salute Joe Starnes, president of Civitan International, at a dinner meeting in El Segundo this evening. It was reported here yesterday by H. M. West, president of the Torrance Civitan Club.

Twenty-five members of the Torrance club will join members of the Wilmington, San Pedro, and Inglewood clubs at the meeting to be held at the Thunderbird Hotel.

West and four other top officers of the Torrance club will also attend a midwinter workshop in Bakersfield Friday and Saturday.

Making the trip with West will be Kenneth Christofferson, John Schultz, Ted Hasagawa, and Gene Genest.

The Children's Class meets Saturday from 5 - 7 p.m. and the Adult Class, Saturday from 7 - 10 p.m.

All the dance activities take place in the Alondra Park Community Building, 3535 Redondo Beach Blvd.

Air Force Enlists Six Local Men

During the month of December, the Air Force Recruiting Office, located at 1319 1/2 Sartori Ave., was able to place six local boys in positions of "Airmen" in the United States Air Force.

They were John Patrick Kennelly, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack P. Kennelly who reside at 1440 253rd St., Harbor City; Gordon Francis Smith, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E.
