South Dumped By Aviation In Opener

Aviation silenced South High's big gun Tuesday, leaving the Spartans without an offensive punch as South dropped the 1960 Pioneer League lid-lifter, 62-26 to the powerful Aviation five.

Joe Austin, South's top point manufacturer, was held to five points, and two other South starters didn't even crack the scoring column as Aviation moved another notch ahead in the schools' three-year rivalry.

South draws a league bye tomorrow night, but has a scheduled home game against Bolsa Grande at 8 p.m.

AVIATION, tabbed one of the contenders for the Pioneer League title, zoomed ahead to stay in the second quarter with a 16 point scoring spurt, for a 25-9 halftime lead.

It was a rout from that point on. At one point in the game, a near fist fight broke out.

Aviation had three players hit for double figures, while South's Jim Mannix tried to take up some of the slack left by Austin, with a 13 point effort.

About the only thing known about Bolsa Grande, tomorrow night's opponent, is that the Garden Grove school competes in the Freeway League and was beaten by North High early in the season, 61-47.

South (26) Aviation (62)
Mannix (13) F Dinnel (12)
Wood F Frohoff (14)
Andrews C Edwards (6)
Mewborn (4) G Featherston (4)
Austin (5) G Smith (11)

Score by Quarters
South 3 6 4 13—26
Aviation 9 16 14 23—62
Scoring subs: So Torrance—Roy, 4. Aviation—Brooks, 10; Long, 5.

L.A. Open to Be Telecast On Channel 11

The $44,500 L. A. Open Golf Tourney will be exclusively covered by KTTV cameras with Bill Welsh and Bob Kelley interviewing participants and guest experts in the gallery during the live Channel 11 telecast from the Rancho course Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, 2:30-5 p.m.

Competition will be keen for the final day's play with a field including all the top 15 money winners of 1959, a rarity even for a United States Open. Included amongst the group are the winners of every major tournament of the year.

Ken Venturi, winner of last year's L.A. premier classic, who is in the position of defending champion, will be hard put to duplicate his fabulous finish of last year which brought him from 20th place starting the final 18 to win by two strokes.
