Annual Carol Program By Piano Pupils

During the holidays, Lois Balsey, piano teacher, entertained her pupils for the annual playing of the carols at her home, 617 W. 214th St.

Keynote of the decorations, as in other years, was the Santa Claus orchestra. The children played according to size starting with four-year-old Ricardo Jurado who played "Sleep Thou Little Child" and five-year-old Phyllis Smith who played "Away in the Manger." "Silent Night" was played by Georgie Ann Jurado; "Jolly Old St. Nicholas," by Doralee Slyh; "Luther's Hymn," Trudy Arndt; "Come All Ye Faithful," Rita Bandalan; "Santa Claus is Coming to Town," Janice Heinke; "Joy to the World," Tommy Williams.

Others were "Herald Angels," Peggy Arndt; "The First Noel," Irene Monge; "Holy Night," Ruth Mitchell; "We Three Kings," George Morgan; "Tidings Glad," June Mitchell; "Frosty the Snowman," Sylvia Olguin; "Silent Night," Peitrie Risler; "Winter Wonderland," Karen Pederson; "Peaceful Night," Michael Corman; "What Child is This," Patsy Williams.

Also, "32 Feet and 8 Little Tails," Pamela Helms; "White Christmas," Marcia Atchison; "Winter Wonderland," Yvonne Lye; "Greensleeves," Mary Helen Argueta; "Come Little Children," Steffany Podesta; "Cantique de Noel," Connie Pederson with Mrs. Balsey at the second piano; "Jingle Bells Novelette," Dorene Podesta.

During the social hour cookies and punch were served.

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK

In Torrance Markets

PROTEIN FOODS
Little change in supply and price of meat . . . with the exception of lamb. Recent decisions will continue USDA grading for lamb. Another hearing is soon to be given the proposition. In the meantime supplies of lamb are tightening up. You'll find lamb in your markets, but beef and pork get attention with "specials."

Any meal of the day . . . any day of the year . . . pork fits into the menu. Pork has a good flavor, stick-to-the-ribs quality, and efficient protein. It is appetizing, satisfying, and nutritious.

High quality pork has firm, fine-textured lean that is grayish-pink in color. The fat is firm and white on the outside of the cut, and some fat is distributed through the lean.

The round, purple inspection stamp on pork indicates that it has passed United States Government inspection. This tells you that the meat is obtained from healthy animals and was prepared under sanitary conditions.

A consistent bargain for many months, poultry still gives more for the money than many other protein choices. Eggs, too, are low in price and high in quality.

ON PRODUCE STANDS

In spite of cold, rainy weather our markets are laden with choice selections of fruits and vegetables.

Avocados. A tremendous avocado crop puts the fruit in a price range of interest to "budgeteers."

There are many ways to serve avocados. Here is a favorite sandwich recipe from a San Diego County avocado grower:

Avocado-Chicken . . . combine flesh of 2 avocados with 1 cup diced chicken, 2 cups chopped celery, 1 cup shredded carrot, 3/4 cup chopped green onion . . . including tender tops. Moisten with mayonnaise. Salt, pepper to taste.

Cranberries . . . plentiful supplies have been cleared for sale. Take advantage of this beautiful fruit . . . fresh, canned sauce or juice.

Grapefruit from California desert valleys is at its best right now.

Pears . . . mostly Anjou variety. Tangerines are a comparatively short-season crop. Make the most of them while in market.

Fresh, bright colored vegetables are plentiful: Cabbage, Brussels Sprouts, Carrots, Celery and Lettuce. Not brightly colored, but interesting in menus are Onions, Mushrooms and Potatoes. Long White Potatoes give most for the money at the present.
