I've never complained openly because I don't want my husband to think I notice, but frankly, I'm terribly hurt. What do you suggest?

— SLIGHTED WIFE
Dear Slighted: If it hurts you to see your husband help her coat while you stand there, bring it into the open instead of boiling on the sidelines.

Simply hand him your coat and say, "Here, Sir Walter Raleigh. I'm your wife. Remember me?"

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Tempting Smoking," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.) Copyright, 1960, Field Enterprise, Inc.
