Legionnaires Plan Visits To Hospitalized Buddies

Legionnaires in Los Angeles County Posts will make group visits to all Veterans Administration hospitals in the County on Sunday, February 21, according to County Council commander Robert F. Hebl.

"Every hospitalized veteran will be visited and a token of remembrance will be given each one," said Hebl. He pointed out that the 264 American Legion Posts in his jurisdiction visit the hospitals on schedule each Sunday.

Since 1947, a mass trek to all Veterans Administration facilities has been conducted on the third Sunday in February.

VETERANS Administration officials invite such activities and cooperate by holding "open house" to the extent that therapy units and other non-restricted operations are inspected.

These include wood working and leather shops, weaving and other occupational activities designed to exercise the

Torrance Elementary School Site OK'd

The Torrance Planning Commission has given the green light to a proposed elementary school site located near 230th St. and Hickory Ave., according to school officials.

The school would serve children of the tract now being developed south of Sepulveda and west of Crenshaw Blvs.

facilities of patients whose war service injuries have retarded their abilities.

A 25-MAN committee has completed plans for the event which include entertainment at VA theatres and in certain wards where patients' health will not be impaired.

Harry Schabblman, of 6219 S. La Brea Avenue, is chairman of the Legion hospital commission supervising the program.
