

Wedding Guests
Here to attend the wedding of Miss Priscilla Beasley and David Cox which took place last Saturday evening were Mrs. J. Harley Murray of Washington, D.C., aunt of the bride; Mrs. Morris Keivley, of Napa, grandmother of the bridegroom; Miss Sharon Donnell of Dallas, Tex.; Miss Leona Jurson, Mountain View, Calif., and Miss Wilma Cornell, Garden Grove.

Canada Guests At Moore Home
Arriving by jet from Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, last Saturday were Mrs. Frank Stack and daughter, Diane, who are visiting Mrs. Stack's sister, Mrs. A. S. Moore, 1741 Elm Ave.
Mr. Stack is manager-coach for the Speed Skaters of Canada who will be competing in the Olympics in Squaw Valley on Feb. 18. He and the team will arrive in Squaw Valley on Feb. 8.
Mrs. Stark will go to San Diego next week to visit her father, F. W. Nixon. She and her daughter will be here about three weeks.

Peninsula Volunteers Open Year

Initial planning for the 1960 Ingathering will begin Feb. 8 when the Peninsula Volunteers for the Needlework Guild of America will hold their first meeting of the new year.
The combined business meeting and coffee hour, hosted by hospitality chairman, Mrs. Stan Peters, is set for 10 a.m., Monday, Feb. 8, at the Assistance League in San Pedro.
The new budget for 1960 will be presented at this meeting, and other important business matters will be taken up. The recommended budget was drawn up at a board meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Graef, who is starting her second term as president of the Peninsula Volunteers.
This will be an excellent opportunity to receive informative literature and new directories for 1960. Also, at this time, area directors will be called upon to give progress reports.
All directors will receive notices of the meeting and are asked to contact their co-directors and members. They are requested to notify Mrs. Stan Peters of coffee reservations old and crotchety but I'm getting darned sick and tired of having everyone who passes my desk in his office tap me on the head, snap my suspenders, pull my hair or tweak my cheek.

Ann Landers
My desk is on the aisle. I'm a sitting duck for every noodnick who passes. You seem to have a solution for everything from box-elder bugs to buggy elders who should be in their boxes. How about some help for me?—END MAN.
Dear End Man: I hope your letter was written in a fit of pique and that you don't honestly resent these friendly taps.
If the pedestrians who pass your desk didn't like you they'd ignore you. Psychologists tell us that touching, tweaking and tapping is a sign of affection.
Dear Ann: Our daughter was divorced last year. She has a 3-year-old son. When Linda (not her real name) left her husband she moved in with us "temporarily." She has made no effort to find a place of her own.
Linda gets a monthly check from her former husband, spends it on clothes and taxi cabs. She sleeps half the day and runs around all night. My wife has to stay home all the time to take care of the boy. She's not a well woman and being with a highstrung child constantly has made her nervous.
Our grocery bill has doubled and the landlady raised our rent when Linda and her child moved in. I hinted to Linda that things were tight but she has yet to pay a milk bill or buy a loaf of bread for the house. What can we do?—PAST 60.
Dear Past 60: You can stop hinting and tell Linda she has 30 days to find a place of her own. Offer to help her pack and make it clear you mean business.
To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Date Bait," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.
(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)
