Mr. and Mrs. James Mathews, 1631 Cota Ave., had as their guests for one week, Mrs. Mathews' brother, K. M. Raynor of El Paso, Tex.; her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murphy of Las Cruces, N.M.; and another brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Raynor of Tucson, Ariz. The group also visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Raynor, 2264 Torrance Blvd. The entire family went from Torrance to Palmdale where they spent some time with another brother, D. R. Raynor.

Verdes League is open to all women of voting age in the Torrance area. For further information, call Mrs. Nicholas Shishkoff, membership chairman.

"Sweetheart Ball" Is Slated Next Saturday

Regular meeting of Pi Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was held recently at the Westchester home of Mrs. Bob Todd, with President, Mrs. Ernest Sommerville presiding. A report on the recent Southern California Council breakfast at the Beverly Hilton Hotel was given by Mrs. Earl Hennis, social chairman, Mrs. Jim Meador, announced that her committee was completing plans for the annual "Sweetheart Ball" to be held on Saturday, Feb. 13, at the Sons of Italy Hall, Imperial Highway, Inglewood. Proceeds from the ball will be donated to the Cystic Fibrosis Fund. At the chapter's first February meeting, members will cast secret ballots for three of the members who will be introduced at the ball when they step through the beautiful red and white lace heart, as princesses. The princesses will then be presented to a judging committee who will select one as the 1960 Queen.

Acting as judges will be Mrs. Don Leirov, Manhattan Beach hairdresser, Mrs. Ellen Albano, Deauville hairdresser, and Mrs. Kaj Ewans, wife of bandleader Kaj Ewans, who will furnish the music for the evening's dancing. After the queen has been selected, she will be presented to the guests by Mr. Bill Garrison, master of ceremonies. Mrs. Meador, 1959 queen will then bestow the lovely crimson jeweled crown and flowing red satin robe upon the new royal member of Pi Phi and present her with a bouquet of red roses. Mrs. Sommerville will act as mistress of ceremonies.

Program for the evening at this last January meeting was a debate on "Should Red China be Admitted to the United Nations?" Mrs. Bill Garrison, program chairman introduced Mmes. Sommerville, Todd, Meador and Knud Sloth as the debating teams. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Todd.

All Women Invited To Join Y-Wives

All women of Torrance are invited to join the Y-Wives on Tuesday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30 at the YWCA, 2320 Carson St. A nursery is provided for the youngsters so that members may enjoy a carefree morning once a week. The first hour of each session is devoted to modern dancing exercises under the able direction of Mrs. Glaedys Naumann. Activities scheduled for the second hour of each session for the remainder of February are as follows: On Tuesday, Feb. 9, there will be a general business meeting. On Feb. 16, the group will see colored slides and hear Dr. Simon Schroeter speak on the "Social Psychological Aspects of Plastic Surgery."

Quilt Party

Mrs. Hazel Ward, 1625 Beech Ave. entertained the Esther Circle of the First Methodist Church at a quilting party at her home last Tuesday. The quilt was made for the Spanish-American Institute on Figueroa Ave. owned by the Methodist Church. At noon, Mrs. Ward served a luncheon. Attending were Mmes. Miles Booth, L. N. Brooks, R. A. Hollins, C. P. Olson, L. E. Pyeatt, Laura Ross, Hazel Ward, Paul Smith, James Buffalo, Charles Riggio, Ida McCullom, Jess Greenwood and Annette Bleich. The final meeting of the month, Feb. 23, will bring another unusual and interesting speaker: the Official Ambassador to Torrance's Sister City, Konya, Turkey.

Clubwomen At District Council Meet

Ten chairmen of the Torrance Woman's club, CFWC District 18 attended the Marina District Fourth Birthday Council Friday, Jan. 29, at the Santa Monica Bay Woman's club. Making the trip were Mrs. John Thuss, president of the club, and district garden chairman; Mmes. Godfrey Nelson, drama; D. J. Quinlivan, literature; A. E. Palmer, Bible; J. P. ## Shower For Bride-elect

Miss Patricia Kline, bride-elect of Jerry Sullivan, was complimented at a pink and white bridal shower given by Mrs. R. W. Reed and daughter, Shirley last Wednesday evening at their home, 1318 Crenshaw. A floral arrangement of pink carnations, roses and white chrysanthemums centered the dining table which also held a pink and white decorated cake. The evening was spent playing appropriate games and the honoree opened a shower of gifts. The hostesses then served refreshments carrying out the pink and white color theme. The invited guest list included Mmes. Dolores Sullivan, A. R. Hurst, I. Potts, mother of the bride, and Misses Jeannie Norman, Irene Hernandez, Sonja Smith, DeAnn Barries, Toni Jewell, Mavis Noah, Ginger Hayden, Bonnie Simmons, Joan De Feo, Bill Wilson, Ruth Vasey, Charlotte Meano, and Etta Gibbard.

New Band At Marineland

The original Hoosier Hot Shots, famous pioneers in the comedy-band style of entertaining, have been signed to appear in person at the Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes. They opened Friday evening in the dining establishment's "Porpoise Room." The musical clowns, headed by Paul and Kenneth Trietsch, who founded the Hoosier Hot Shots many years ago, are today still internationally known for their mapcap showmanship. Comedy songs and witty routines from back-to-bop, with such improbable instruments as washboards and slide-whistles, will highlight their performances in the "Porpoise Room."

Open House

After the Vesper Service of the Winter Class of 1960 at Narbonne High school, open house was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf, 21804 Halldale Ave. Their son, Robert, is a member of the class. Assisted by Mrs. Richard Gazeley and Miss Judy Wolf, a buffet supper was served by Mrs. Wolf to the 60 classmates attending. Following the buffet, an evening of games and dancing was enjoyed by the group.

Indiana Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Don Walgren of South Bend, Ind., arrived last Sunday to spend a week here with Mr. Walgren's uncle and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Walgren, 803 Acacia Ave. During this next week the Walgrens and their guests will go to Las Vegas for a few days.
