

Girl Scout Cookie Sale Begins Friday

Girl Scouts and Brownies of the Los Angeles Council will stage their annual cookie sale beginning Friday, Feb. 12 and continuing through Monday, Feb. 22.

All the girls and their parents conduct the cookie sale to help finance the Los Angeles Council which makes it possible to serve girls who belong and make room for those wishing to become Girl Scouts.

A bonus of five cents a box will be given to troops whose troop average is over three cartons per girl. A Cookie charm will be presented to each girl selling cookies whose troop averages three cartons or more.

Mrs. Gene Groce is Harbor District Cookie coordinator.

Guardian Visits Local Jobies Bethel

Deputy Grand Guardian Edna Babcock paid her official visit to the Job's Daughters, Bethel 50 and initiation was held on Tuesday evening, Feb. 2.

After the escort of the Deputy Grand Guardian, others escorted were Mrs. Barbara Pollard, guardian; Leonard Babcock, associate guardian, and Mrs. Claire, past guardian of the Bethel.

The girls who were initiated are Carol Barker, Gladys Brorby, Lorraine Brorby, Cristy Kahn, Mary Lou Knight, Paula Mertz, Kay Porterfield, Linda Prejor and Petrojean Womack.

During presentations, Mrs. Babcock was given a gift from the Bethel. Also, prizes were presented to Susan Sparks, Jackie McAdow, Susan Hawley, Margaret Riebold, Leonard Babcock, Pat Hardy, Laura Zimmerman, Connie Zimmerman and Connie Eggleston for selling the most fruit cake and fudge.

During the closing, Mrs. Babcock gave a short speech on the Job's Daughters Masonic Heritage.

After the meeting, the members and visitors enjoyed refreshments in the dining room which was decorated in a Valentine theme.

On Jan. 30, the Job's Daughters and their families went to see Ben Hur. Part of their way was paid by the profit earned by selling fruit and candy.

On Feb. 13, the Job's Daughters and DeMolay will have a Valentine Dance. The Jobie Darling and DeMolay Sweetheart, which the members have already voted on, will be revealed. The music will be furnished by a phonograph and refreshments will be served. The dance will be held at the Masonic Temple free of charge.

Betsy Ross Club

Betsy Ross Club of the Torrance Eastern Star will hold their regular meeting Tuesday, Feb. 16, at Masonic Temple. All members are invited. Each is asked to bring her own sandwich and dessert will be served.

Y Report Meet Set For Feb. 16

Only one report meeting in the Harbor Area YWCA Membership Drive will be held for the entire area, Dr. Frances Clark, area chairman, announced here today. This will be a report on Tuesday, Feb. 16, at the Torrance Branch, 2320 Carson, Torrance.

In addition to the reports of each Branch by individuals working in each section, a brief pep program has been planned by Mrs. Elmer Higgs, membership chairman for the San Pedro Branch.

The goal for the drive is 2500 by Feb. 22, Dr. Clark stated. This would mean that there are still approximately 700 members and associates still to be secured, or 300 in San Pedro, 200 in Wilmington, and 200 in Torrance.

The theme of the annual drive, which was launched on Feb. 1, is "Come Aboard the Member Ship."

Captains in charge of the drive are: Mrs. Kenneth Clutter, Torrance; Mrs. Fritz Klansen, Wilmington; and Mrs. James Farwell, San Pedro.

Houseguests

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stauffer of Greenfield, Iowa, left Thursday morning for their home after a week's visit here with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Eden, 4916 Reynolds Dr. Arriving Wednesday for a two weeks visit with the Edens was Mrs. Louise Huffman of Kansas City.

Walteria

At the January general meeting of the Walteria PTA Mrs. Al Moore, Safety and Civil Defense chairman, arranged for a demonstration of fire hazards in and around the home. The demonstration was given by Battalion Chief Northington, assisted by Engineer Charles Reintsma. Included in the program were not only common fire hazards, but also helpful guides on how to put out small fires around the home before they become destructive.

Boy Scout Troop 240 led the flag ceremony. President Jim Birmingham called upon Mrs. Al Moore to read the treasurer's report in the absence of the treasurer. Mrs. Klempan also reported on her office of Life Membership Chairman.
