

HOT SPOTS

By BEN and PAUL SMITH

Surprise . . . our "Hot Spot" for this week is for hunters, as you can see by the above picture, javeline hunting, as a matter of fact, for wild pig in San Carlos County, south of Globe.

Orville Dick, Dick Hiatt, Bob Noland and Lloyd Fullerton participated in this rare sport this past weekend. They hunted on the Indian Reservation using high powered rifles, as wild pigs are very hard to kill.

Lloyd says you have to keep a very sharp eye out for them since they are a very quiet quarry normally found in semi-desert type country. He advises against shooting into a pack of them because they have been known to turn and charge into the hunters.

They are a bristly type of animal salt-and-pepper in color with huge and dangerous tusks on either side of their mouth. They also have a most strong odor. I'd sure hate to have one jab me with those tusks.

However, this type of hunting is a real sport. The season ends February 15th. So you have only this weekend left. License fee is $20, $1 for javeline permit and an additional $3 for a permit to hunt on the Indian Reservation.

But for $24 you could not possibly have a better time hunting. Get three or four fellows lined up to help share expenses and you'll have a wonderful shoot. Lloyd will gladly draw anyone a map showing you how to get to the area. You can reach him by calling FA 8-5034.

Never in my life have I seen anyone so excited as Chic Hill when he came by the house Sunday to show us his prize catch, which is shown here. What bass he had.

It included a five-pound-two-ouncer and (glory be) a ger thrill if it had been a marlin," Chic said.

Of course we know, fish-for-fish, it's a prize to be proud of and we'll bet Chic has it mounted.

Hey, Pop, tell the kids we have a surprise for them. Frank's back and we have lots of new and wonderful plans.

six-pound-ten ounce. He caught them at San Vicente Reservoir using good old Black Jig Ikes for bait. Season closes end of February, so you'd better hurry.

After many years of faithful, persistent fishing, Chic feels that his efforts have finally been rewarded. Our congratulations to him. It brought him the first large mouth bass button in the Rod & Gun Club.

Metro Basketball Championship For Grabs Tonite

The highlight and keynote of the second round of the Metropolitan Conference basketball season comes tonight when Long Beach City College risks its 10-0 record against second place San Diego (9-1) in the border city.

The winner is practically assured of at least a portion of the 1960 championship — and if it be Long Beach, then all the marbles will be swept into the same corner.

LBC HAS WON the Metro title—and the state championship—the past two years.

In other conference action tonight El Camino's downhill Warriors meet high scoring East Los Angeles in the big city, third place Bakersfield takes on hapless Santa Monica, and Harbor plays at Valley.

El Camino coach George Stanich has juggled his starting five to pick up the slack left by mid-season ineligibilities.

LATEST TO feel the scholastic chopping blade was high scoring freshman guard Jack Runyan.

Tonight the El Caminoans face the task of stopping ELA's Huey Thomas, the conference's leading point-maker with a 27 point average.

East L.A. trimmed Santa Monica Tuesday, 84-77, as Thomas pushed through 35 markers.

EL CAMINO was dumped for the second time by Long Beach 80-64 Tuesday as five LBC starters scored in double figures.

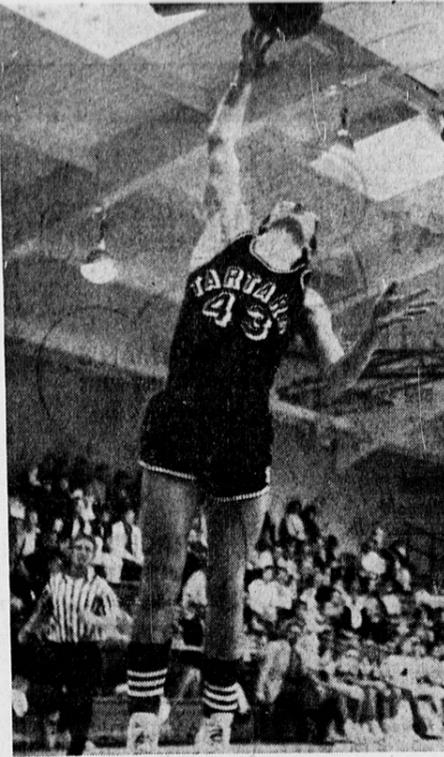

Only Harry Dinnel (22) managed to get into the double figure bracket as the Warriors dropped their 8th conference tilt against three wins.

In San Diego tonight, Long Beach will be bolstered by the addition of high scoring forward Stacy Higgins, while San Diego has added Art Gilbert to its already potent scoring attack.

LONG BEACH scored a 74-73 win in the first round.

El Camino (64) Long Beach (80) KRC (9) F Cox (10) Cattivera (7) F Carmic' (12) Dinnel (22) C Hodge (15) Boyd (4) G Thomas (12) Breslin (5) G Milhorn (15)

HALFTIME SCORE — Long Beach 44, El Camino 29.

TWO POINTER . . . Torrance's Howard Taylor goes up for two pointer in recent game and hopes to repeat with several tonight against championship contending Beverly Hills. Taylor, Tartar captain, scored 10 points Tuesday in 79-56 rout of El Segundo. (Herald photo).

Giants Sign Ron Anderson to Pro Baseball Pact; Reports to Tacoma

Ron Anderson, a 1956 graduate of North High School, was recently signed to a professional baseball contract by the San Francisco Giants and will report to spring training next month.

Anderson, who is living at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Anderson of 4331 W. 180th St., has been assigned to Tacoma of the Pacific Coast League.

Ron, a lanky 6'4" right-handed pitcher-first baseman, was originally signed by the Boston Red Sox and assigned to Waterloo of the Three-I League (Class B) but was injured and released.

Former pitching great Dutch Reuther signed Anderson for the Giants.

Ron was a three year varsity letterman while attending Torrance high schools, and is also a product of the Torrance Central Babe Ruth League.

Jim Archer of Miami, a Cincinnati property, pitches for the Havana Lions against Rudolph Arias of the Chicago White Sox, pitching for the Mariano Tigers Friday.
