Chamber Asks
Nominations to
Citizen of Year

More than 1000 nomination blangs for Torrance's "Citizen of the Year" for 1959 were mailed this week to business and industrial firms, and community organizations, according to an announcement today by President J. H. Paget of the sponsoring Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

Paget said additional forms can be obtained at the Chamber office, 1511 Cravens Ave.

The Award, in memory of two departed civic leaders — Dr. William Laughon and Grover C. Whyte, former HERALD publisher — will be presented as a highlight of the Chamber's Annual Banquet at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Los Angeles on March 30.

Banquet Chairman Jim Becker said that the award will be judged on what the nominee has contributed to the citizens and City of Torrance in 1959. Only residents or those employed in Torrance are eligible, Becker added. Any person, organization, or business firm can submit entries. Deadline for entries is March 15, 1960.
