ISABEL L. TOLSON

Funeral services for Mrs. Isabel Louise Tolson, 64, wife of a pioneer Torrance businessman, developer, and civic leader, will be held at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. with the Rev. Robert Dehn of the First Baptist Church officiating.

Mrs. Tolson, who lived with her husband, William H. Tolson Sr., at 903 Beech St., for many years, had resided in Torrance for 45 years before her death Thursday.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by two sons, Robert H. and William H. Jr., both of Torrance; a brother, William E. Woodward of Long Beach; and a sister, Elsie Geilfus of Vallejo, Calif.

With her husband, Mrs. Tolson was active in the affairs of the First Baptist Church of Torrance, and shared the public attention with him as he served the city as its mayor, as a councilman, and member of the board of education. Burial will be in Green Hills Memorial Park.

WILLIAM A. ROHAN

Funeral services for William A. Rohan, 94, who resided at 2363 Maricopa Place, were conducted at the Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel Friday morning with a Christian Science reader officiating.

Mr. Rohan had lived here since 1917. He leaves no survivors. Private cremation followed Friday's services.

FLORENCE J. BOOHER

Funeral services for Florence J. Booher, 66, of 21740 S. Harvard Blvd., were held at the Halverson-Levell Mortuary Chapel yesterday with the Rev. Walter Graham of the Western Avenue Baptist Church officiating. Mrs. Booher, who had lived in Torrance for 20 years and in the South Bay for 30 years prior to moving here, died Wednesday. She is survived by her husband, Corda; three sons, Donald of Torrance, Norman of Lawndale, and Kenneth of El Segundo; and five grandchildren.

Burial was in Green Hills Memorial Park.

JAMES B. WEYMOUTH

Funeral services for James Boyd Weymouth, 66, of 2223C Cabrillo Ave., were held Wednesday at the A. M. Gamby

Mortuary of Lomita with the Rev. Robert A. Wells of the Narbonne Ave. Baptist Church of Lomita officiating. Mr. Weymouth, a resident here for seven years, died Monday at his home. He was a native of Long Pine, Nebr.

Mr. Weymouth is survived by his widow, Della; a son, Boyd, of Los Angeles; two daughters, Helen Grisamer of Bellflower and Maxine Allen of Lusk, Wyo.; 11 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; a brother, Orrin J. Weymouth of Nebraska; and three sisters, Blanche Wagners of Walteria, Amanda Bailey of Wyoming, and Lucille Childers of Nebraska.

Burial will be in Chadron, Nebr.

South Bay Eds, Bosses Enjoy Dinner Meeting

Educational office employees and their bosses enjoyed a pleasant evening together at San Pedro Hacienda when the South Bay Eds had their second annual Bosses' Night. Employees and guests from the following school districts met for a social hour and dinner: El Segundo, Hawthorne, Inglewood, Lawndale, Lennox, Manhattan Beach, Palos Verdes, Redondo Beach, South Bay Union High, Torrance and Wiseburn.

Dinner was served at long tables decorated with large floral arrangements in hues of orange and yellow. These same colors were carried out in programs and table appointments designed to be in keeping with the speaker's topic.

Dr. C. C. Carpenter from the office of Los Angeles County Schools delivered the invocation. Mrs. Charles Marshall of South Bay Union High School District, president of South Bay Eds welcomed guests and introduced the members of her executive board. They were as follows: vice president, Mrs. Eugene Holderman from Palos Verdes district; recording secretary, Mrs. Lloyd Anderson, El Segundo; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Joseph Black, Redondo Beach; and Mrs. Harry Crock, treasurer, from Inglewood Unified School District.

Mrs. Crock spoke on the activities and goals of local, county, state and national educational office employees associations.

Mrs. Holderman, program chairman, presented the speaker of the evening, Elwood N. Chapman of Chaffey College. His topic, "Your Attitude Is Showing," was presented in a clever and entertaining manner by use of a flannel board and amoeba cutouts representing various attitudes that office workers are apt to assume.

Those in attendance from Torrance Unified School District were: June Baggett, Robert Dollarhile, Nancy Eiserling, Doris Hakanson, Boone Kirks, Joyce McKee, Josephine MacZuga, Judith Mathews, Robert Morton, Philip Korman, Helen Olsen, Alice Regal, Roy Shaner, and Priscilla Zander.

North High King, Queen Lead Dancers

By JOYCE MORRIS

North High Sweethearts Nancy Taylor and Jerry Carothers were crowned king and queen at the Sweetheart's Ball for North High. After the couple was crowned, they led the next dance surrounded by the dreamy atmosphere of Valentines.

After Lincoln's Birthday holiday with its three-day week end, there were many activities. The student council and Julian and Valents both had an installation banquet. The following Friday the Girls League held its installation assembly. Afterwards, they held a tea for their council.

Demos Plan Pot-Luck on Thursday Eve

Registered Democrats are being invited to participate in a pot-luck dinner Thursday evening, Feb. 25, beginning at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Roger West, 21710 Vicky Ave. in Southwood Homes.

A short business meeting will be called by President West of Torrance Democrats, Inc., following the dinner to hear reports from delegates who attended the recent California Democratic Council convention in Fresno.

Persons planning to attend call Mrs. West at FR 6-3647.

THREE OF A KIND . . . Mrs. George W. Dome, 23245 Marigold Ave., thought she was seeing double for a few seconds Saturday morning as she broke an egg to fry for breakfast. Then she realized she was seeing triple. "Double yolks are common, I'm told," she told a HERALD reporter later. "But three yolks, all perfectly formed, is very uncommon," she reported. The reporter, having never seen a three-yolk egg before agreed. (Herald Photo)
