City Protests Request of Lynwood Bus Firm to PUC

Whether a Lynwood bus company will be permitted to run buses over the principal streets of Torrance in competition with Torrance Municipal Bus Lines is to be determined by the Public Utilities Commission in a decision awaited by city officials.

Members of the commission took the matter under submission last week at the end of a hearing before Commission examiner Mark Chiesa in Redondo Beach.

AT STAKE is the question whether the Cross Town Suburban Bus Lines should be permitted to operate buses along portions of 174th St., Hawthorne Ave., Carson St., and Pacific Coast Hwy.

If the lines should be given permission to operate over those routes, it would work a great hardship on the Torrance bus system, M. A. Chamberlain, manager of the local lines, said at the hearing. The Torrance lines will face further deficit if the Lynwood firm is permitted to parallel some of the city's most lucrative lines, he said.

CHAMBERLAIN told the Commission examiner that the city is operating the lines now at an annual deficit of about $40,000.

Supporting the application of the Lynwood firm before the Commission examiner were representatives of area shopping centers, the Redondo Beach and Inglewood Chambers of Commerce, and the Little Company of Mary Hospital.

Judges for Jaycee Essay Contest Listed

Judges for the My True Security community eliminations, to be held Feb. 29, 1960 were announced today by George Gillum, project chairman for the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Judges include Ed Wheeler, Toastmasters; John Hartley, El Camino College, and Bill Johnson, El Camino College.

My True Security is a script writing and delivery competition for all high school seniors.

On Feb. 23, 1960 school eliminations were held in community-wide finals trying for the right to represent Torrance in the Jaycee-sponsored state finals.

Judges will determine both school and community winners on the basis of script content, originality and delivery.

Awards are at stake in the local competition. The state winner will receive a trophy, a $200 scholarship and an all-expense-paid trip to the national awards program in Washington, D. C. in June. At that time, three national winners will be selected from the 51 state finalists, representing all states and the District of Columbia.

My True Security is co-sponsored nationally by the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., Newark, N. J.

Footlight Theater Slates Readings for New Fantasy

Readings for casting two new productions of the Footlight Theater will be held Feb. 26, 29 and Mar. 4, 7:30 p.m. at the municipal plunge, 3331 Torrance Blvd. The group recently completed a successful production of the comedy, "Dear Ruth."

"Heaven Can Wait," a comedy-fantasy to be directed by Alex Sturmer, is being cast. Sturmer, presently associated with Talent Associates of Television, has directed musicals and three-act plays in the San Francisco Bay area.

"Here Comes Mr. Jordan," was the movie title of this play. The cast includes roles for 12 men and 6 women and is about a prize fighter who suddenly finds himself dead through an error by one of the Heavenly messengers.

The fun begins when the fighter and his Heavenly messenger try to find another body for him to inhabit for his remaining years or nearth.

"Night Must Fall," a mystery-drama will be presented first, early in May in accordance with the group's desire to alternate comedies with dramas. The play takes place near an English country resort and concerns a bellboy and his odd behavior. The cast includes four women and three men.
