Roger Ambill Claims Bride In Washington

A wedding of interest in this area took place Jan. 1 in the Anacostia Methodist Church in Washington, D.C., when Roger Ambill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ambill, 1556 West 222nd St., claimed as his bride Miss Linda Huie.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Huie of Anacostia.

The new Mrs. Ambill is a member of the Job's Daughters Bethel 5 of Anacostia in Washington, D.C.

. . . Ann Landers

able Anglo-Saxon word, used in the best of circles. I heartily recommend that you use it for just such occasions.

Dear Ann Landers: Our son goes with a girl 15. He's only 16 and very adult for his age. The problem is with the girl's parents. They insist that she be home by midnight. (She has permission to date weekends only.) However, they think it's perfectly all right for a young man to stay and visit as long as he likes. The only thing that matters is that their daughter is at home on time.

Our son has been rolling in at 3:30 and 4:00 in the morning. We don't think this is right. What can we do about it? We can't tell the girl's parents to kick our son out. — TROUBLED PARENTS

Dear Troubled Parents: It's not good for a young man to park himself at a young lady's home until dawn. The girl's parents should impose some sort of curfew to her visitors. Since they are not so inclined, it's up to you to give your son orders. Tell him he must be home by 1 a.m. This is ample time for fond farewells.

Confidential to Scared Stiff: Change the locks on your doors. This is far better than being as nervous as a long-tailed cat in a room full of rocking chairs.

If alcohol is robbing you of health and dignity, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Help For The Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20¢ in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.) Copyright 1960, Field Enterprises, Inc.

BENEFIT DANCE . . . On the steps of the new St. Philomena rectory, which will be furnished with proceeds from the dance to be given by the Women's Council Saturday evening are, from left, Mmes. Gene LeRoy, Frederick Schmidt and Richard Keeffe. The dance, to be given in the parish hall, 219000 Main St., will be in an oriental setting. The public is invited.

Round the Clock Styles Displayed for Pi Phis

"Fashions Around the Clock" was the program presented at the regular meeting of Pi Phi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, held recently at the home of Mrs. Frank Conely, Ingleside Drive, Hermosa Beach. Each member participated in the program which was presented by Mmes. Joe Secula, Dave Apgar and Bob Grommett, by wearing her favorite outfit during the normal American woman's day. Fashions ranged from sleeping and lounging clothes, sports clothes, and daytime dress to formal, a bowling outfit complete with ball, worn by Mrs. Ernest Somerville, to an airline stewardess' uniform worn by Mrs. Don Bromley, former stewardess.

As each model appeared, Mrs. Secula included her in the story of a woman's busy day and explained her reason for wearing a particular fashion, while Mrs. Grommett turned the hands on a large black and gold paper clock depicting the time of day each would most likely be worn.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Somerville, president, at which time Mrs. Charles Fitzpatrick, vice-president, announced that this year's pledges had completed their pledge training and would be entertained by Mrs. Fitzpatrick with a dinner party in her Hawthorne home. The pledges include Mmes. Earl Hennis, Rodney Barker and Jack Halgren, and will receive their formal Ritual of Jewels the latter part of February at the Ramada Inn, Los Angeles, at a chapter banquet in their honor. Mrs. Somerville will conduct the Ritual of Jewels ceremony.

At the meeting in February, Mrs. Steve Mady will present a book review on "Hawaii" by James A. Michener. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Joe Disparte, Los Angeles, and each member will dress in authentic Hawaiian fashion.

At Dinner Dance

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Murdock, all of Torrance, attended the Los Angeles chapter Building Contractors Assn. annual inaugural dinner dance at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel.
