Reception Given For Newlyweds

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sinclair who eloped to Yuma, Ariz., and were married on Dec. 19, 1959, were honored at a reception on Friday evening, Feb. 12, given by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Burpo, 1564 W. 210th St., Torrance.

The Burpo home was beautifully decorated in the wedding theme. Approximately 100 friends and relatives congratulated the newlyweds.

Mr. Sinclair is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sinclair of El Cajon, formerly of Gardena.

The bride was graduated from Gardena High school and is employed by a firm in Redondo Beach.

Mr. Sinclair is an employee of the Fontana Plumbing Co. in the San Pedro area.

The newlyweds are now residing at 1548 W. 226th St., Torrance.

Halldale

Two honorary life memberships were presented by the Halldale PTA Feb. 9 in the school auditorium to Mrs. Margaret Jensen, a fourth grade teacher, and Mrs. William Wilson. Both of these women have done outstanding work for youth groups and PTA.

Mrs. Howard Black, Founders Day chairman, presented a skit entitled "Parade of Memories," in which Mrs. W. H. McGuire portrayed "Granny." A quartette composed of Mmes. sang while past presidents and honorary life members were introduced to the association.
