Scout Trails

Girl Scout Troop 601

"San Moritz, Here We Come" was the sign on the chartered bus which took Girl Scout Troop 601 of Torrance to the Chimes Chalet on Lake Gregory in the San Bernardino mountains last Saturday.

The girls, with their leaders, Mrs. Helen Rock and Mrs. Ruth Janasik, enjoyed ice skating Saturday afternoon. In the evening all gathered around the fireplace for dancing, games, and refreshments. Highlight of the evening was the very impressive "Scouts' Oath" before "Lights out."

Sunday, after Church, the Scouts found ample snow around the chalet to have an in-ner-tube slide, build snow-women and forts for snowball fights.

THIS TRIP to the snow was special to the girls because they raised the funds, did their own menu planning, the cooking, in fact, organized the complete trip. Scouts going on the trip were Carole Winkelbauer, Barbara Stapinski, Gayle Hardesty, Kathleen Blesser, Patricia Thompson, Diane Landerville, Mary Jean Winkelbauer, Patricia Basile, Shelia McManus, Nancy Chandler, Judy Jones, Shannon Janasik, Susan Klaegas, Colleen O'Hara, J. dy Emenger, Madonna Walker, Patricia Hayward, Anne Bowen, Maria Castaner, Diane Rock, Donna Dougan, Marilyn Nincevic, Judy O'Hara, and Bonnie Dalton.

Only one girl in the troop was unable to go because of

Hawaiian Theme, Luau Set For Opening of New Palley's

The pageantry of the south seas and romantic foods of the Islands, which will herald the opening of Palley's in Torrance, Sunday, March 20, will be presented for the new volume department store by The Polynesian Restaurant.

Highlighting the tropical theme of Hawaii will be a promotional luau catered by the exotic restaurant, which will bring the land of the feasts and flowers to Palley's local debut.

Harry Baty's "Polynesians" will musically entertain the first-night crowds from 2 p.m. to 7 p.m. while hula maidens will perform traditional dances.

Palley's and The Polynesian are combining all efforts to have the gala opening of Torrance's new store reflect the gracious hospitality of the Islands.
