Alums Will Celebrate St. Pat Day

South Bay Tri Delta alumnae and their husbands will celebrate St. Patrick's day with an informal dance and supper on March 19 at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. Curtis Johnson, 1009 Grandvia Altamira, Palos Verdes Estates.

Mrs. Carl Stoffers, who is in charge of the party, has requested that reservations be made by March 16. In addition, Mrs. Edward B. Wilder, chapter president, has issued a special invitation to all Tri Deltas in the area to attend, whether or not they are members of the alumnae group.

Meanwhile, Tri Deltas will hold their regular monthly meeting next Wednesday, March 9, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. James P. Dahl, 4009 via Pavion, Palos Verdes Estates.

Chief order of business will be the election of officers for the coming year, Mrs. Wilder said. Also, a brief program has been planned, Spring Fantasies, by Mrs. Mark U. McKie, Hollywood Riviera, program chairman. Co-hostesses for the evening are Mmes. Francis Dunne, Hermosa Beach and Charles W. Russell, Torrance.

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will sponsor "Father Brown Detective," a British film starring Alec Guinness on Saturday, March 5 at 8:30 p.m. The film and the award-winning short "Faces of Moscow" will be shown at the temple, 112 1/2 North Catalina Avenue, Redondo Beach.

This is the third in a series of foreign films co-hosted by Mrs. Donald Finkelstein of Hollywood Riviera and Mrs. Edward London of Rolling Hills. The next film to be shown will be a Danish drama, "Day of Wrath" on April 2.

The films are open to the public. Information and tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Donald Finkelstein or Mrs. Edward London.

A fashion show will highlight a luncheon at the Palms Restaurant, 1925 West Carson, Torrance on Monday, March 14 at 12 noon, sponsored by Temple Menorah Sisterhood.

All of the latest spring styles will be displayed by professional models — everything from sportswear to formal.

Mrs. Gene Kaufman, president will conduct a brief business meeting afterward. High point of the meeting will be the appointment of a nominating committee to recommend a slate of officers for the 1960-61 term of office.

Luncheon reservations can be obtained by contacting Mmes. Stanley Lieber, Hy Freidman, Robert Eckhouse, Bert Levine of Redondo Beach, Bernard Spanier of Rolling Hills and Jackson Bedford of Torrance.

Club Member Honored At Dinner Party

A surprise birthday dinner for Mrs. E. V. Winkelbauer was the highlight when Mrs. R. S. Sleeth, Jr. and Mrs. C. A. Woodcock entertained their bridge club at the Sleeth home in Walteria on Feb. 23.

A buffet dinner was served from the dining table which was centered by a sunburst arrangement of yellow carnations flanked by green candles. The birthday cake was decorated in the same pastel colors. Small floral arrangements decorated the small tables.

After dinner, the honoree was presented with clever cards and a money gift from each attending for a "shopping spree." The hostesses each gave a bottle of champagne which was opened for a toast to the honoree.

At the close of the bridge games, high score was held by Mrs. Robert Clayton, second by Mrs. Woodcock and third, Mrs. Robert Bowker.

Club members attending were Mmes. E. V. Winkelbauer, Robert Clayton, Donna Barkdull, John Sass, John Minech, Alan Lucas, C. A. Woodcock and R. S. Sleeth, Jr.

An extra table of friends of the honoree included Mmes. Tom Randall, Carl Randall, Robert Bowker and William Geter.

New Square Dance Class

A beginner square dance class for adults will be held each first and third Saturday of the month at the Charles King Youth Hall, 1409 W. 253rd St. in Harbor City. The name of the group is Beachnuts. Instructor is Merl Olds.

Alumnae To Hear Speaker

Flower arrangements will brighten the setting for the meeting of the Chi Omega South Bay Alumnae Assn. at the home of Mrs. Woodrow K. Thames, 4322 Silver Saddle Lane, Rolling Hills Estates, Monday, March 7 at 8 p.m.

Tat Shino of Tat's Flower Arrangement School, will present an interesting and informative program. The art of arranging flowers and greenery from your yard will be the keynote of the demonstration.

A brief business meeting will be conducted by the president, Mrs. James McGhee. A special philanthropic report will be given by Mrs. P. Peter Krahenbuhl.

Chi Omega alumnae in the area are invited to attend. For further information call Mrs. W. K. Thames.

Gamma Etas

February meeting of Gamma Eta chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma was held at the home of Mrs. Lillian Wright, Los Angeles.

Mrs. Janet Bolinger, vice president, conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Mary Adamson, program chairman, presented Dr. Ivy Mooring, member of the chapter who ably discussed the topic "Strengthening Our Educational Program Through Understanding Children's Reading Problems."

The next meeting will be the Regional Conference Breakfast to be held at the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro on March 12.

Garden Club Has Social

Regular meeting of the Greenthumbers Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. William Fitzgerald on Feb. 18.

After the business meeting the members played games with many prizes awarded to the winners.

Mrs. Cora Dunson became an official member of the Greenthumbers and was presented with a corsage. Mrs. William Junge attended her second meeting as a regular member and went home with the grand prize for winning the most games.

Members present were: Mmes. Harry Allen, James Buchanan, Cora Dunson, William Fitzgerald, John Fitzgerald, James Halley, George Horton, William Junge, John Klug, Paul Kolleck, Joseph Leger, Al Mategorin and Louis Wilhelm.
