

PTA The Torrance Council Way

By Mrs. Lee Polick

NEWTON
Mrs. C. Richard Wallner, principal, will hold a special meeting in the school cafeteria on March 8 at 8 p.m. to discuss with interested parents the multi-grade system of teaching. All parents are urged to attend and are invited to ask questions about how the "Little Red Schoolhouse" approach to teaching can help their children to get a better education.

The next meeting of the executive board of Newton PTA will be held at the home of Mrs. D. C. Robbins, 135 Paseo de Gracia, March 10, at 10 a.m.

LINCOLN
"How special needs of children are met" is the theme for the next Lincoln PTA Association meeting to be held at the school cafeteria, March 10, Thursday, at 7:30 p.m.

Guest speaker will be Robert Dollarhide, Guidance Consultant for the Torrance Unified School District, and Lester Foster, principal of the Columbia School. Multi-grades will also be discussed. Come out for this meeting, parents, so that you may know more about your child and his education.

Children are the same the world over! Testifying to this fact are Torrance boys and girls who waited in line 45 minutes to get even by throwing wet sponges at the Lincoln School principal and teachers at the All-Nations Fun Carnival in spite of the fact that there were eleven more booths, more than 400 children chose to wait at the sponge booth.

TORRANCE HIGH
Open House will be held at Torrance High School, Tuesday, March 8, 7:30 p.m. All parents and any other interested members of the community are invited to attend. The PTA will serve refreshments in the cafeteria after Open House.

Mark Caldwell was honored by the Torrance High School PTA with an Honorary Life Membership at the last organization meeting as Founders Day was observed.

Past Presidents were presented: Mrs. Roxie Sleeth, the first president of Torrance High PTA; Mrs. A. C. Turner, mother of Coach Turner; Elmer Moon, and Mrs. T. O. Kasten, mother of Coach Kasten.

A short skit was given by Mary Smiley and Walter Stocker, our exchange students, with the help of Carol Jonsson and Bill Tilley. The skit portrayed the differences between our country and foreign lands. This was followed by slides of Mary Smiley's trip to Austria last summer and Walter Stocker's home in Switzerland.

PERRY
A spaghetti dinner cooked by Perry principal, Robert Allen, and his committee of fathers is planned for March 10. Dinner will be served in the cafeteria starting at 6:30 p.m. Menu will include spaghetti, salad, garlic bread, milk and coffee.

MAGRUDER
The next regular PTA meeting will be held March 9 at 7:30 p.m. The topic is to be: "The Magic Twosome: Your Child and Health" and will be presented by the students of the 7th and 8th grades. Also featured will be the report of the nominating committee.

At Magruder PTA's February meeting Mrs. Carroll Brackett was the recipient of the Honorary Life Membership. The money sent in the name of this recipient is placed in a California State Parent Teacher education fund to be loaned to students studying in the field of education and allied fields.

Mrs. Brackett was selected for this honor for her work in the youth activities and community affairs. She is co-leader of Brownie Troop 2255 and is at present PTA hospitality chairman. She was presented with a bouquet of roses.

Honoring Founders Day, the five past presidents of the former El Nido PTA gave a PTA story entitled "The Story of a Tree" since our emblem represents the Oak Tree. Those participating were Mrs. Phil Melior, Mrs. Elmer Ecker, Mrs. Amos Chadwick, Mrs. Ira Hon, and Mrs. Elroy Whitlock (in the absence of Mrs. Paul Herling). The presidents were presented with a plant.

The nominating committee was selected with Mrs. Herman Rodgers as chairman. Those working with her will be Mrs. Clifford Murrow, Mrs. Elroy Whitlock, Mrs. William Newton, Mrs. William Freed, and Edwin Brown as the school representative.

The students from Mrs. Inghram's first grade and Mrs. Bullock's first and second combination presented a song and dance program.

CASIMIR
Founders Day and the presentation of Honorary Life Memberships were featured recently at the February Casimir Elementary PTA meeting.

An important question and answer period was held on Multigrades. The discussion was led by Mrs. Martin Beaudet, principal, who was assisted by R. McDaniels, Administrative Director of Educational Materials Building, and Mrs. C. Denmarsh, Curriculum consultant. Multigrade is a voluntary program.

Honorary Life Membership Awards were presented to Mrs. Barton Peters and Mrs. John Rozum by Mrs. Larry Nelson, Honorary Life chairman.

A Founder's Day skit was cleverly enacted by teachers and mothers who represented famous fashions from the 1890s to 1960. A 1910 bathing suit was featured.

HILLSIDE
"The Villian's Last Stand" was the highlight of the "Gay Nineties Review" held recently at the Hillside School Cafeteria. This was the biggest ways and means project of the year and featured local talent from the Hillside area. Directing the melodrama was Mrs. Fred Fields. Members of the cast included John Strom, principal, in the role of Sheriff; Charles Smith, faculty member, as the Villian; Robert Miller, faculty member, as Mr. Lovely; Mrs. Bert Mennes as Mrs. Lovely; and Mrs. Tony Santaella as Emmaline Lovely, heroine; Robert Kendrick as Jack, the hero; Mrs. Alfred Kreman as Mary Lighthouse; and Mrs. Francis Davidson as the Villianess. Tony Santaella was master of ceremonies with Mrs. Eric Borner as prompter.

LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

Flavian
"Annals of Achievement" was the name of the radio skit presented at the Founder's Day meeting of the Flavian PTA, in the school cafeteria recently. In addition, Honorary Life Memberships were presented to Edmund Ives, and William Clary. Mrs. John Fiebelkorn, Founder's Day chairman, was in charge of the program.

Mrs. Charles Peterson, president, presided at the meeting. The flag ceremony was presented by Cub Pack 706-C under the leadership of Wayne Simpson. The inspirational message for the evening was given by Mrs. Z. Giza and reports were heard from Mrs. Chester Black, Ways and Means chairman, and Mrs. J. Kenneth Edwins, chairman, nominating committee.

The Honorary Life Membership presentations were made by Mrs. Pearl Hebert, Flavian faculty member. In addition to Mr. Clary and Mr. Ives, honorable mention was given to Mrs. Hugh Chadwick, Mrs. Sybil Smith, and Mrs. Pearl Hebert, outstanding members of the community.

Members of the radio panel included: John Fiebelkorn, narrator, Loren Kupper, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Swan, Wayne Simpson, Mrs. Burt Ferris, Bill Peralto, Mrs. Lewis Dearth, Mrs. William Heffner, Mrs. R. Maschello, and Mrs. John Fiebelkorn. Birthday cake and coffee were served by the third grade mothers.

259th Place
A6 students of 259th Place school were honored with a luncheon in the school auditorium. The gala affair was given by the PTA and A6 mothers. Special guests were David Anderson, who was presented with a gift from the class, Miss Frances Dastara, principal, and Mrs. W. N. Kepley, Jr., PTA president.

Lunch was prepared by Mrs. B. W. Church, F. Fernandez, Harold Fricke, Robert Haller, Robert Pfleger and Richard Frazier.

After the lunch, parents attended a special program "An Episode from the Life of Cervantes". Announcing were Tammy Jess, Jane Heller, Gwen Chapman, Jack Chaddock, Christine Wulbern, Chandelle Sandfry, and Marguerite Marinovich.

Actors were Billy Monge, Jeffrey Chase, Tom Whitlock, Ricky Hall and David Wilson.

Others were Lois Frazier, Mary Ann Mericola, James Ash, Leonard Bautista, Billy Church, Jon Cements, James De Vries, Pat Ewing, John Fernandez, Barbara Freick, Earl Hall, Carol Haller, Karen Hallen, Stephen Hogan, Richard Hathaway, Paul Hart, Bobby Pfleger, David Shorr, Cinda Shreenan, Aaron Wade and Michael Thomas. Smith, Stephen Shorr, Sharon

EDISON
February was an exceptionally busy and interesting month for Edison PTA. At the Association meeting, Mrs. Bert Richardson was presented with an Honorary Life Membership.

This presentation, by Mrs. Carl Miller, was made by using a wheel diagram which was constructed spoke by spoke on the spot. Each spoke represented an interest or endeavor to which Mrs. Richardson has earnestly dedicated herself. The last piece of the wheel to be put in place was the hub an which was printed her name.

North High
Two honorary Life Memberships were presented by North High PTA Tuesday, Feb. 16, to two worthy persons. Mrs. R. L. McDonald, acting Honorary Life chairman, presented the first one to Bert Richardson, expressing appreciation for his many civic interests and activities. He helped organize North Torrance Little League, served on the Board of Directors for the Babe Ruth League and spent much of his time acting as umpire.

The second award was given to Dale Harter, principal of North High School. Mr. Harter is on the sanctuary planning committee and member of the Methodist Men's Club; serves as chairman of the Student Scholarship committee for the Lions Club; developed the first Science Fair and Career Day program in Torrance; is a member of the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity and was active in helping to organize North High PTA.

The Association voted to send $100 to the Dental Health fund. The program for the evening was presented by the Combined Choir, Girls Glee, Mixed Chorus under the direction of Frank Small and Mrs. Lydia Willis, accompanied by Mrs. Marilyn Steele.

259th Place
A6 students of 259th Place school were honored with a luncheon in the school auditorium. The gala affair was given by the PTA and A6 mothers. Special guests were David Anderson, who was presented with a gift from the class, Miss Frances Dastara, principal, and Mrs. W. N. Kepley, Jr., PTA president.

Lunch was prepared by Mrs. B. W. Church, F. Fernandez, Harold Fricke, Robert Haller, Robert Pfleger and Richard Frazier.

After the lunch, parents attended a special program "An Episode from the Life of Cervantes". Announcing were Tammy Jess, Jane Heller, Gwen Chapman, Jack Chaddock, Christine Wulbern, Chandelle Sandfry, and Marguerite Marinovich.

Actors were Billy Monge, Jeffrey Chase, Tom Whitlock, Ricky Hall and David Wilson.

Smith, Stephen Shorr, Sharon

Walteria
Cherry blossoms and bamboo decor set the stage for the Japanese theme at the Walteria PTA meeting. Japanese folk dances were done by Arlene Matsui.

Mrs. Courtney's class gave a selection of poetry in choral speech as the inspiration and Jim Birmingham opened the meeting.

Mrs. Robert Spangler gave the nominating committee report. Nominated were Mmes. Al Klempner, Ted Knapp, Carl Vedborn, Robert Hillborn, Don Moore, Ernie Jerret, Robert Spangler and Robert Schrauben.

Mrs. Roger Helms, hospitality chairman, gave a history of the PTA in observance of Founders Day and then presented past presidents Mmes. S. C. Murray, R. J. Deurloo, B. J. Michaels, Glen Hardcastle, Bruce Howey, Carl Cramer, C. W. Johnson, Henry Fink, J. J. Lawlor and Mr. George Thatcher.

Honorary Life memberships were presented to Mrs. Helen Herrera and W. J. Labit.

Evelyn Carr
"History - The Foundation for New Frontiers" was the theme for the Feb. 23 meeting of Evelyn Carr PTA.

Mrs. Perry Baker presided and the flag salute was led by Junior High Girl Scouts from Troop 1715.

The Eighth Grade students, under the direction of teachers Mrs. Murdock, Mr. Newberry, and Mr. Waters, presented a program designed to show the parents what they are learning this year about the U.S. Constitution and History.

Honorary Life Membership Awards were presented to Mrs. Albert Pesola and Mrs. Roland Stamm.

The chairmen featured for the night were Honorary Life chairman Mrs. Carl Johnson and Courtesy chairman, Mrs. Carl Fadick.

Hillside

Mrs. Mildred Hanger was the surprised recipient of the Honorary Life Membership Award presented by Grace Barker at the regular meeting of the Hillside PTA on Thursday, Feb. 11.

Mrs. Hanger, a multi-grade teacher and member of the Hillside faculty since it was organized in 1955, has been active in Association work and is presently serving as parliamentarian on the Hillside executive board.

Mrs. Francis Davidson, president of Hillside PTA was presented with a bouquet of flowers, and past-presidents were honored with corsages.

Hamilton
Mrs. William Y. Wells was presented an honorary life membership by the Hamilton PTA.

The presentation followed a skit by Mrs. Charles Griffin, Mrs. Jack Cleveland and Todd McCartney.

Presented with corsages were Mrs. William Poser, Council president, and past presidents Mmes. Hervie Blue, Jack Prince and Francis Stutler.

Other guests were Mrs. Myron Spaulding's mother, Mrs. Alice Leeks and sister Mrs. M. W. Scott.

Eighth grade students were junior hostesses.

Arlington

Mrs. Francis Stutler, honorary life membership chairman at Arlington PTA, presented an award to Bob Jones at the Feb. 11 meeting.

Mr. Jones has been active with Boy Scouts and has been selected to act as Scoutmaster for the Harbor District at the Boy Scout Jamboree to be held in Colorado Springs in July. He received the Order of the Arrow and the Scouters key.

Present when the award was made were his family, Mrs. Mae Jones, his mother, Mrs. Jones his wife, and children Bob Jr., Jim, Scott and Lee.

Meadow Park

Meadow Park PTA awarded an honorary life membership to Mrs. Walter Marshall. The presentation was made by Mrs. Russell Bardick.

The ward was in appreciation of outstanding work in the PTA. Mrs. Marshall and her husband are active in church. They have been Skippers of the Porpoise Group and are serving as adult advisors to the high school youth group.

Mrs. Marshall has worked with the Girl Scouts, collected funds for the March of Dimes, and other charities.
