

NEW TEMPLE PLANNED . . . Construction is planned soon for the new Temple Menorah of the South Bay to be located at Sepulveda Blvd. and the Torrance-Redondo Beach city limits west of Palos Verdes Blvd. Ground was broken recently at ceremonies presided over by Rabbi Edgar Magnin of Los Angeles and Rabbi Henri E. Front of Temple Menorah. Plans for the temple include space for 16 large classrooms, administration and office space, and a large library, and a sanctuary which can seat 400 persons.

Six Torrance High Students Attend Pasadena Conference

Kaaren Christ, Vernon Lamphere, and Joan Marjala, business education students, and Janice Fredrickson, Oren McKnight, and John Sandstrom, distributive education students of Torrance High School received the honor of selection as representatives of the business department to attend a Professional Conference at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel, Pasadena, last week for the Third Annual "Students and Business Talk It Over Day".

This conference, established through Mrs. Dorothy Ford, consultant in business and distributive education, Los Angeles County Schools, was jointly sponsored by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation and the County Schools, with assistance from local office machines distributors and textbook and magazine publishers.

THE HIGH SCHOOL students and junior college students had separate meetings at this conference, but they had lunch together.

Keynote speakers include Dr. C. C. Carpenter, assistant superintendent, Los Angeles County Schools, for the High School Section, and David Hurd, assistant western director of the Sears-Roebuck Foundation, for the Junior College Section.

The luncheon speaker was Dr. John R. Van DeWater, head of the executive programs and conferences at U.C.

L.A., and Miss Libby Lealy, former student of Culver City High School, who attended the day with business two years ago and who was selected from several contestants to speak for the students.

Bruce Broadwell, head of the business education department at Torrance High School accompanied the students in attendance at this conference.

Tartar Teen Talk

By CHERRIE LACY

The annual Open House at Torrance High School was held on Tuesday, March 8th, from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The purposes of the Open House were to better acquaint parents and other interested people with the teachers and to visit the classrooms to see student projects. Some of the departments featured student demonstrations on skills taught in classes.

The Junior Class held auditions for 20 variety acts on Tuesday and Wednesday. From these acts the auditioning committee will make selections for the Junior Class Variety Show to be presented as a part of the coming "Prom Week".

ON THURSDAY and Friday the Tartar trackmen traveled to host Mira Costa High School to try for the Mira Costa Track Relays trophy. Expected to rack up points for Torrance were Tony Bareford, Mike Walker, John Gable, and Mike Thornton in the four-man distance medley. Other promising entrants were Gary Huffman and Jerry Ascolesi in the high jump, Bob Henderson in the Bee 660 medley, and Bob Kyle in the class Bee pole vault.

On Tuesday the Torrance Varsity baseball team hosted Mira Costa in a non-league game at Torrance Park. Starting time was 3 p.m. The Tartars defeated Mira Costa by a score of 3-2. The J. V.'s were also victorious with a 10-8 score. Wednesday the Varsity team went against Leuzinger. Here they chalked up their second win of 6-1. On Friday Torrance played against Centennial at Torrance Park.

TUESDAY THE Torrance High School tennis team was defeated by Mira Costa 5-1 after a series of close matches. On Wednesday the Tartar netters went against Leuzinger. Friday the Tartars hosted Centennial.

Friday was the long awaited annual One-Act Play Festival sponsored by Miss Rosemary De Camp. Three comedy plays and one drama were presented. The plays chosen to be presented were "The Voice" by Verne Newsom, "I Was Mistaken" by Earl Newsom, which was the only drama, "Della" by Linda Kraegel and a comedy by Barbara Adams. Starring in these plays were Noel Shire, Phil Cosby, Jim White, Jan Planz, Lynn Keller, and Jim Pritchard. Following these presentations there was a panel discussion in the school cafeteria. The panel gave constructive criticisms to the student authors and actors. Miss Rosemary De Camp awarded trophies to the four students whose plays were presented.

STUDENTS KAREN Crist, Janice Fredrickson, Joan Marjala, Vernon Lamphere, Oren McKnight, and John Sandstrom and teacher-sponsors Delmar Smith and Bruce Broadwell represented Torrance High School at the third annual Student-Business Conference at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena. The conference consisted of discussion groups, demonstrations, and business exhibits, as well as general sessions with key speakers. The purpose of the conference was to develop leaders in business in order to achieve peace.
