Checker Candidate's Hope For Honors Goes to Panel

The hopes of Maxine Gimbel, selected as Shoppers Markets' candidate for international Checker of the Year honors, were sealed inside an 8x10 envelope and mailed to Chicago today.

There an independent board of judges will select state and regional winners from among the hundreds of candidates representing super market companies throughout the United States, Canada, and Central America. The preliminary winners will be announced March 28.

M. W. GLASS, director of the Shoppers Markets company campaign, said the hopes of Miss Gimbel rest upon the judges' evaluations of her essay on the subject, "How I Look at My Job," plus a comparison was chosen to represent the firm's checker cashiers, the responses to a set of test questions, and the worth of the candidate's family responsibilities and life goals.

If Miss Gimbel emerges as one of the 10 regional winners, she will fly to Atlantic City via United Air Lines for the final competition, following which the 1960 Checker of the Year will be named and crowned on May 2 in ceremonies at the 23rd Annual Convention of Super Market Institute.

SMI and The National Cash Register Company are co-sponsors of the annual awards program, which each year finds some 100,000 super market checkers competing for prizes which include a tour of the Hawaiian Islands as guests of the Dole-Hawaiian Pineapple Co. and vacation trips to Florida's Hollywood Beach Hotel.
